Notre Dame had the luck of the Irish going for it . . . lucky to escape with thier lives.

Four Horsemen? These guys were like the whole cavalry. Famine, Pestilence, Death and Destruction were like Halloween goodies compared to the Spartan defense.

PRESS BOX

Michigan State's Fred W. Stabley Press Box, dedicated in November 1980 to honor MSU's longtime sports information director, is located on the west side of Spartan Stadium and can be reached from Shaw Lane, an east-west campus thoroughfare south of the Stadium. The top three decks of the structure look out into the stadium. The levels include a radio deck with booths for three radio originations and a television camera platform, a press deck with seats for 90 writers and a broadcast location for national and regional telecasts. Reminder: No cheering is allowed in the press box.

WORKING CREDENTIALS

Arrangements for media credentials for Michigan State's six home football games in 2004 must be placed with Assistant Athletics Director John Lewandowski in writing on company letterhead at least two weeks prior to the game in question. Priority for the issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers and television stations which cover MSU football on a regular basis. All other credentials for print media are issued on basis of circulation. Upon acceptance of application, appropriate credentials are mailed out or held for pickup at the temporary media will-call site, located in the trailer parked at the north end of the Outdoor Track Complex. All members of the media picking up credentials at media will-call will be required to provide photo identification and the name must match the one listed on the credential. Working press tickets contain specific seat locations. Reporters requiring exclusive phone service should have their own lines and instruments installed. Others may use a limited number of telephones on a first-come, first-served basis.

PRO SCOUTS

As per Big Ten Conference regulations, Michigan State does not provide press box access or media credentials for professional scouts. However, scouts may purchase single-game tickets for Spartan home games through the MSU Football Office at (517) 355-1647.

ROAD GAME CREDENTIALS

Writers covering the Spartans on a regular basis may request media credentials for road games through the MSU Sports Information Office. Credential requests are faxed to opponent SIDs on Mondays two weeks prior to the game.

PHONE LINES

An adequate number of phone lines and phone instruments are available, but media members needing to order their own lines should contact Ameritech (800) 321-8152. Those ordering personal phones should provide Ameritech with the following street address for installation, One Michigan State University. To use existing lines, dial 8-0-area code-number. For toll free numbers, dial 8-1-800-number. Only collect, toll free and credit card calls are accepted.

RADIO

Each originating broadcasting station will be issued five booth tickets. Spotters' tickets must come from this allotment. Home team spotters are provided on advance notice only, and visiting team spotters must be arranged with visitors.

Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a daily sports show receive consideration for credentials. A post-game report service will be available from a sports information staffer after each home game at no charge.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Field passes are issued on the basis of circulation with priority granted to media agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis. Photographers may work from either sideline (except in the team area) and beyond both end zones. Press box photo passes for assigned locations are issued to television station crews. A maximum of three working tickets is allowed per TV station. Note: With the return of natural grass in Spartan Stadium, field access is limited to still photographers, camera operators and sideline reporters for "live" radio/TV network coverage.

MSU follows the guidelines established by the NCAA Communications Committee regarding sideline control, which ensure the sideline is a working press area. The following guidelines are adhered to:

1. Each photographer is required to wear an armband at all times.
2. Armbands must be secured at the photographer's credential pickup.
3. After kickoff, no photographers are permitted in the bench area, on the playing field, or in the 12-foot area between the limit line and sideline.
4. Cutline writers, messengers and equipment carriers are not permitted in the sideline armband area.
5. Tripods are not permitted in the sideline armband area.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking passes are available for $15 per game and $90 for the 2004 season (six home games). The designated lots for media parking are all within easy walking distance of Spartan Stadium. Media parking passes will be assigned by the MSU Sports Information Department. Priority for lot assignment will be given to daily newspapers and TV stations that cover Spartan football on a regular basis. All other media parking will be issued on the basis of circulation or market size (TV/radio). Additional parking fees are required to accommodate TV satellite trucks and "live" radio remotes.

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Prior to kickoff, all media members will be provided a game program, updated game notes from both teams, a flip card and other pertinent information. Last-minute line-up changes, pregame weather conditions and other information will be relayed through the internal public address system. During the game, media members will be provided with a running play-by-play, while at halftime, quickie stats will be distributed. Following the game, a complete post-game stats package will be available in the press box and will contain a scoring summary, final team statistics, final individual statistics, complete play-by-play, drive charts, defensive statistics, player participation list, post-game quotes from both head coaches and selected players plus post-game notes.

Game notes and quotes will be posted on Michigan State's official website promptly after the conclusion of the game (www.msuspartans.com).

CAFETERIA SERVICES

Food will be sold in the cafeteria, located on the second floor of the press deck. The cafeteria will open approximately two hours before kickoff and remain open through the conclusion of halftime. Complimentary coffee and soft drinks are available throughout the game.

MSU ON THE INTERNET

Visit the official Michigan State Athletics home page on the internet at www.msuspartans.com. The site offers up-to-date information on all of MSU's 25 varsity sports, including schedules and results, player and coach biographies as well as the latest news from the MSU athletics program. Links to the NCAA, the Big Ten Conference and the 10 other Big Ten schools are also provided.

HOTEL ROOMS

Hotel rooms are booked far in advance of Michigan State home football weekends. The Michigan State Sports Information Office has set aside a limited number of rooms at local hotels for accredited media representatives. Arrangements should be made through sports information office assistant Paulette Martis at (517) 355-2271. Some area hotels require a two-night stay for Michigan State home football weekends and a valid credit card is required for reservations being made through the MSU Sports Information Office. Media members are responsible for making their own lodging arrangements when Michigan State plays on the road.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCES

A weekly press conference with Spartan head coach John L. Smith and selected players will be held each Monday during the season, beginning at 11:30 a.m. at North Case Hall, located across the street from the Duffy Daugherty Football Building on the MSU campus. Parking is available at the metered spaces in the Case Hall parking lot and in Lot 79 – the gated, pay lot – located south of Spartan Stadium, off of Shaw Lane.

WEEKLY INTERVIEWS

Interviews during the week with head coach John L. Smith or any Michigan State players should be arranged through the MSU Sports Information Office. Smith's best time for interviews is between 11 a.m.-12 noon Eastern during the week. The MSU Sports Information Office requests that all player interviews be arranged through this department and that media members not contact players in their apartments or dormitory rooms. The best time for (requested) player interviews is following practice Tuesday at approximately 6 p.m. Selected players will be available for a brief period following practice Wednesday at approximately 3 p.m. All player interviews should be completed by the conclusion of practice on Wednesday of game week. Please contact the MSU Sports Information Office for all player interview requests at least 24 hours in advance.

Media parking is available in Lot 79 – the gated, pay lot – located south of Spartan Stadium, off of Shaw Lane.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Media representatives may attend head coach John L. Smith's post-game press conference in the interview trailer, located outside the stadium tunnel entrance after a short post-game cooling-off period. All requested Spartan players also will be available for post-game comments in the interview trailer following Coach Smith's press conference. The lockerroom will not be open to the media. Coach Smith's comments will be hooked into an amplification system and audio feeds can be obtained through use of connector cords (standard 1/4-inch connector). TV stations should bring a recording deck, standard BNC video cable and XLR audio cable. TV camera operators will be asked to set up their equipment at the back of the room. Coach Smith's post-game press conference can also be seen live on closed circuit in the press box. The visiting coach press conference, held in another trailer outside the tunnel, will be shown on a tape-delay basis following Coach Smith's press conference.

PRACTICE SCHEDULE

Tuesday practices are open to the working media for approximately 30 minutes, beginning at approximately 3:30 p.m. TV cameras and still photographers are permitted to shoot flex and the first few periods. The remainder of practice is closed.

RADIO NETWORK

All Michigan State football games will be broadcast on the Spartan Radio Network, as the MSU Department of Intercollegiate Athletics enters its final year of a three-year deal with the addition of two option years. A regionally recognized sports syndicator based in Holt, Mich., Spartan Sports Network will produce and distribute Michigan State radio broadcasts. The games can be heard throughout Michigan on the 35-affiliate network, with WJIM AM and FM Radio in Lansing serving as the flagship station.

George Blaha enters his 27th season as the play-by-play announcer for Michigan State football. Blaha, who resides in Troy, Mich., is in his 29th year as the voice of the NBA's Detroit Pistons, calling games on both television and radio. The National Association of Sportswriters and Sports Broadcasters honored him as the 1998 and 2002 Michigan Sports Broadcaster of the Year. Born in Detroit, Blaha graduated from Notre Dame in 1966 with a degree in economics. While growing up in Marshalltown, Iowa, Blaha and his father attended Michigan State's first-ever Big Ten game, played at Iowa in 1953. He lists All-America halfback Sherman Lewis and former QB Charlie Baggett as his all-time favorite Spartan players.

Former Spartan quarterback Bill Burke is in his third season as a member of the broadcast team, serving as the color analyst. The four-year letterwinner (1996-1999) led MSU to the 2000 Citrus Bowl title with a 37-34 victory over Florida as a senior. The Warren, Ohio, native ranks among the Spartan career leaders in touchdown passes (second with 46), passing yards (fourth with 5,463), pass completions (fifth with 416), pass attempts (fourth with 766) and pass completion percentage (ninth at 54.3). In addition, Burke is the only quarterback in MSU history to pass for 400 yards in one game during a 34-31 victory over Michigan in 1999.

Mike Kamin is in his second season as a member of the Spartan Football Broadcast Team, after five years producing and serving as the broadcast host of the Central Michigan Football Radio Network. Kamin also hosts a daily statewide radio series that deals with college athletics in the state of Michigan entitled "The Michigan Sports Brief." A 1995 graduate of the University of Illinois, Kamin was a member of the Illini's 1994 Big Ten champion track and field team. He was a three-time Academic All-Big honoree.

Will Tieman returns for his fifth year on the Spartan Football Broadcast. In addition to his sideline duties, Tieman will host the post-game locker room coverage. For the 15th year, he will continue to serve as host of the syndicated series "This Week In College Football." Other football related activities this season, include: serving as the anchor for a second-straight year for the College Football Hour aired nationally on The Sporting News Radio Network, serve as the play-by-play voice of the national Motor City Bowl broadcast, and will host the daily state wide series "Coach Talk" featuring MSU head football coach John L. Smith.

Will Tieman, Mike Kamin, Bill Burke and George Blaha.

Spartan fans will have three different opportunities to catch Michigan State on FSN Detroit.

Spartan Sports Zone, a weekly 30-minute television show produced and distributed by the Michigan State Athletics Department, will air Sundays this fall throughout the state and Midwest region on FSN Detroit.

MSU head coach John L. Smith will provide fans with an inside look at the Spartan football program Thursdays in a new show called One on One with John L. Smith.

In addition, the Pontiac Challenge Cup will air on Friday nights on FSN Detroit. The Pontiac Challenge Cup provides for positive promotion and competition among the 23 common sports teams from both Michigan and Michigan State. Personnel Breakdown 21

2004 Preseason Depth Chart 26

Michigan State will build its 2004 offense around a receiver corps that features three returning starters, including Kyle Brown who had 29 catches for 481 yards and three touchdowns in 2003.

Michigan State returns 16 starters overall from last year's 8-5 team, including seven on offense, seven on defense and two specialists.

The losses on offense are small in quantity but big in quality. Gone is second-team All-Big Ten quarterback Jeff Smoker, who recorded 10 200-yard passing games in 2003, along with three of the offensive linemen that protected him.

"I'm worried about the lack of leadership on offense," Michigan State head coach John L. Smith said. "I'm sure the uncertainty at quarterback contributes to the situation some, but we need guys at other positions to step forward and take ownership."

On defense, the losses include some of the 2003 team's top playmakers, including linebacker Mike Labinjo (11.5 tackles for losses), defensive end Greg Taplin (10 sacks) and defensive tackle Matthias Askew (11 tackles for losses).

Despite those personnel losses, the Spartans return seven starters from a defensive unit that led the Big Ten in sacks (45 for 299 yards), takeaways (29) and interceptions (15). The Spartans also ranked among the NCAA leaders (27th) in rushing defense, allowing only 124.8 yards per game.

"I really like the way our defense runs to the football," Smith said. "We don't have to coax those guys any more because they know good things happen when they fly to the ball.

"The defense will have to carry the team over the first half of the season until the offense matures. We must come out of the blocks with a few wins."

POSITION-BY-POSITION BREAKDOWN

Second-year head coach John L. Smith takes a position-by-position look at the 2004 Spartans.

QUARTERBACK

The biggest challenge on offense is filling the shoes of record-setting quarterback Jeff Smoker, who completed 302-of-488 throws for 3,395 yards and 21 touchdowns as a senior. Smoker led the Big Ten in passing (261.2 yards per game) and total offense (252.2 ypg.) in 2003. A four-year starter, Smoker won 21 of 37 career starts – the best total in Spartan history.

After serving as Smoker's understudy last season, Drew Stanton (6-3, 225, So.) is the top candidate to take over the starting role at quarterback in 2004. Stanton, who completed 2-of-3 passes for 39 yards in four brief appearances last year, participated in only non-contact drills during spring practice while continuing to rehab from reconstructive knee surgery. He suffered the knee injury covering a punt in the first quarter of the Alamo Bowl against Nebraska.

Other contenders for the starting job at quarterback include Stephen Reaves (6-1, 206, R-Fr.) and Damon Dowdell (6-1, 222, Sr.).

Reaves, who took the bulk of the snaps with the No. 1 offense during spring drills, completed 49-of-90 throws (.544) for 472 yards, two touchdowns and five interceptions in four spring scrimmages. The left-hander hit 15-of-26 passes for 184 yards in the final spring scrimmage while directing four scoring drives.

Dowdell, a fifth-year senior, has appeared in 16 games during his career, including six starting assignments. The three-year letterman has connected on 126-of-233 passes (.541) for 1,513 yards, 12 TDs and six interceptions. He completed 24-of-48 throws (.500) for 219 yards, two TDs and two interceptions in four spring scrimmages.

SMITH TALKS ABOUT THE QUARTERBACKS:

"There's no question that 2004 will be a transition year on offense because it's impossible to replace a seasoned veteran like Jeff Smoker overnight. Jeff provided the one building block in the spread offense because he gave us an opportunity to win every Saturday.

"This quarterback race will be determined on the field during preseason camp. I'm looking forward to watching these guys compete for the job.

"Drew Stanton got a little game experience last year as Smoker's backup. I really like the way Drew takes care of business on and off the field. He brings a level of calmness to the playing field. Drew doesn't do anything flashy, but he's productive. He simply has a knack for moving the football.

"Drew is a great student of the game and even though he didn't take any live reps during the spring, he took plenty of mental reps. He has a solid understanding of the offensive system and a great feel for knowing where to go with the football. The injury probably has forced Drew to become more of a pure passer.

"Stephen Reaves made great strides during spring ball. We threw a ton of material at him and

After serving as Jeff Smoker's understudy last season, Drew Stanton ranks as the top candidate to take over the starting role at quarterback in 2004.

Red-shirt freshman Stephen Reaves showed flashes of brilliance during spring practice, completing 15-of-26 passes for 184 yards in the final scrimmage.

Fifth-year senior Damon Dowdell expects to compete against Drew Stanton and Stephen Reaves for the starting job at quarterback in 2004. Dowdell, who has six career starts to his credit, has produced three career 200-yard passing games.

by the end of the spring, he was beginning to let the offense work for him. He's an extremely competitive kid and at times, he's his own worst enemy. Stephen's got such a great release that he has to fight the urge to throw the ball downfield. He's still learning that there's nothing wrong with dumping the ball off to a running back for a 6- or 7-yard gain, instead of throwing the ball up for grabs into coverage downfield. He's a rookie, so it's going to take some time for him to learn the importance of taking care of the football.

"Stephen has the ability to ad-lib plays and get out of trouble when the pocket breaks down. I hate to stereotype but like most lefties, he has the ability to make big plays out of nothing. He has all the physical tools and I believe that he's going to be a good player.

"Damon Dowdell displayed a lot of maturity during the spring. Damon became focused on his obligations away from football and produced in the classroom, so he's earned the opportunity to compete for the position. He got limited reps during the spring but I liked what I saw from Damon in terms of his composure and leadership ability.

"Damon's greatest asset is his athleticism. He puts a lot of pressure on the defense because he's such a threat as both a runner and passer."

OFFENSIVE LINE

One of the toughest obstacles is rebuilding the offensive line that lost three starters. Left guard Joe Tate, right guard Paul Harker and right tackle Steve Stewart were responsible for 96 combined starting assignments.

Junior Chris Morris has been a model of consistency at the center position, grading out 90 percent or better in 19 of 21 career games played.

Junior Agim Shabaj again figures to be a key weapon in Michigan State's offensive playbook in 2004. Shabaj led the team in receptions with 57 for 692 yards and five TDs in 2003.

Chris Morris (6-4, 298, Jr.), a preseason candidate for the Rimington Trophy, anchors Michigan State's offensive line from the center position for the second year in a row. Stefon Wheeler (6-5, 330, Jr.) moves into his second season as the starting left tackle, while Kyle Cook (6-3, 292, So.) is the heir apparent at left guard. William Whitticker (6-5, 329, Jr.), a backup to Harker in 2003, ranks as the team's most experienced lineman, with 19 career starts to his credit, while the top candidate to fill the starting vacancy at right tackle is Sean Poole (6-7, 290, Sr.).

SMITH TALKS ABOUT THE OFFENSIVE LINE:

"There's no question that we lost some experienced, quality players from the offensive line but I think we have a chance to be more athletic up front in 2004. It's critical that this unit quickly develop some cohesiveness.

"Chris Morris provides a solid foundation to build around. Chris is a smart football player and all of the communication up front begins with him. He's bigger and stronger than he was a year ago and we're expecting him to assume a greater leadership role.

"Stefon Wheeler is a talented tackle, with good feet. If he can keep his weight down and remain healthy, Stefon has a chance to become a special player.

"I've really been impressed by the development of Kyle Cook at left guard. He's a guy that we needed to get on the field because of his attitude and toughness. I really like his demeanor because he wants to battle on every snap.

"I'm expecting big things from William Whitticker. He's back in the starting lineup and now, it's time for him to produce on a consistent basis and exert himself as a leader. If this unit is going to reach it's full potential, William is going to have to play a significant role in molding it together.

"Sean Poole is another senior that has to step up to the plate and deliver consistently.

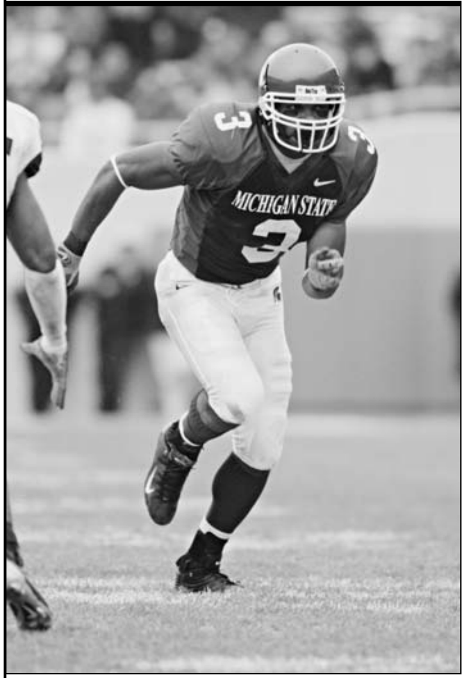
"I look around and see some talented, but inexperienced offensive linemen. Mike Gyetvai has a chance to be an impact player right now and before it's all said and done, he could become a great football player. I think he has what it takes physically and mentally to excel at his position.

"Pete Clifford is another promising young player. Pete has made great progress, especially in terms of improving his footwork. And his body has completely changed because he's a workaholic.

"Gordy Niebylski is another guy that could factor in the mix up front. Gordy is a sharp player who has worked hard to increase his overall strength and flexibility."

WIDE RECEIVERS

Michigan State will build its 2004 offense around a receiver corps that features three returning starters: Agim Shabaj (5-10, 195, Jr.), Aaron Alexander (6-5, 209, Jr.) and Kyle Brown (6-1, 208, Jr.).



Junior wide receiver Kyle Brown came on strong at the end of the 2003 season, catching three passes for a career-best 126 yards vs. Penn State, including an 80-yard TD grab.

The Spartan coaching staff is expecting big things from junior wide receiver Aaron Alexander, who had 44 receptions for 522 yards and three touchdowns in 2003.

Shabaj led the team in receptions with 57 for 692 yards (12.1 avg.) and five TDs in 2003. His 57 catches rank seventh on MSU's single-season chart.

Alexander ranked third on the team in receptions with 44 for 522 yards (11.9 avg.) and three scores. He played as well as anyone during the second half of the 2003 season, catching 38 passes for 425 yards and three TDs over the last eight games.

Senior Eric Knott figures to play a major role in Michigan State's offensive game plan in 2004. Knott has 66 career receptions for 655 yards (9.9 avg.) and six TDs.

Brown finished fifth on the team in receptions with 29 for 481 yards (16.6 avg.) and three TDs.

Matt Trannon (6-6, 217, Jr.) and Jerramy Scott (5-10, 188, So.) also are back in the fold, so two of those starting slots are up for grabs. Trannon had 28 catches for 259 yards (9.2 avg.) while Scott hauled in 19 passes for 212 yards (11.2 avg.) and two scores.

Other contenders for playing time at wide receiver include red-shirt freshmen Terry Love (5-11, 174) and Irving Campbell (5-11, 185).

SMITH TALKS ABOUT THE WIDE RECEIVERS:

"I honestly believe that we're going to be a ton better at receiver in 2004 because across the board, we're more athletic. The wide receivers had a great spring because they went to the field with the right attitude and played with confidence. That group has learned how to catch the ball with their hands instead of their chests.

"In particular, I thought Kyle Brown, Matt Trannon and Jerramy Scott made great progress during the spring.

"Kyle needs to step up and assume a leadership role on offense because he does everything the right way, both on and off the field. I really think that he's capable of having a breakout season.

"Matt came out for spring ball with a rejuvenated attitude after spending the winter with the basketball team. He also made great strides as a pass catcher in the spring. Matt could emerge as a bona fide playmaker because he creates match-up problems with his combination of size and speed.

"Jerramy simply had a great spring, consistently delivering big plays.

"Aaron Alexander brings a lot of positives to the field. He adds some confidence and maturity to the lineup. Aaron also brings a ton of energy to the field because he loves to compete.

"By the end of the 2003 season, Aaron might have been our best target. He has remarkable hands and wants the football – and I like that attitude a lot.

"I think Terry Love and Irving Campbell have put themselves in a position to contribute this fall. Terry appears to do things so naturally when he's on the field."

TIGHT END

The Spartans are well stocked at tight end, thanks to the presence of four returning lettermen, including Eric Knott (6-3, 249, Sr.), Jason Randall (6-5, 269, Sr.), Ryan Woods (6-4, 250, Jr.) and Matt Walters (6-2, 249, Sr.).

Knott, who has shed 18 pounds from his frame since the conclusion of the 2003 season, finished fourth on the team in receptions with 31 for 306 yards (9.9 avg.) and two touchdowns a year ago. Randall had a career-best 21 receptions for 218 yards (10.4 avg.) and two scores in 2003.

Senior DeAndra Cobb will be expected to take on a greater role in the Spartan running game in 2004. Last year, Cobb gained 172 yards on 38 carries.

SMITH TALKS ABOUT THE TIGHT ENDS:

"I'm expecting both Eric Knott and Jason Randall to have big senior seasons.

"Eric has worked hard during the off-season to change his body type. He's blessed with all the physical tools; he simply needed to sharpen them. Eric is extremely athletic for his size. He's a big man that can run and catch the football. He's amazing to watch after the catch because he simply uses his brute strength to run over linebackers and defensive backs. My hope is that Eric will strive to be a more complete football player in 2004 by becoming a more physical blocker.

Red-shirt freshman Jehuu Caulcrick has been selected the preseason Big Ten Offensive Newcomer of the Year by The Sporting News. Caulcrick rushed for 224 yards and two TDs in three spring scrimmages.

“Jason has improved his skills as a pass receiver but he too needs to become a more physical blocker, especially in the running game.

“Now that he’s healthy (missed eight games with a knee injury in 2003), Ryan Woods should push for more playing time in 2004. Ryan is a talented athlete who has a chance to be a major contributor.”

RUNNING BACK

When Coach Smith elected to shuffle Michigan State’s top returning rushers from a year ago – Jaren Hayes (team-best 609 yards and 5 TDs) and Tyrell Dortch (279 yards and 3 TDs) – to the defensive secondary, he knew that he wasn’t leaving the cupboard bare at running back.

DeAndra Cobb (5-10, 197, Sr.), who gained notoriety as an All-America kick returner in 2003, is the projected starter at running back. Cobb started two games at running back last year and finished fourth on the team in rushing with 172 yards on 38 attempts. This spring, he rushed for 297 yards on 54 carries (5.5 avg.) and scored twice in four scrimmages.

Jehuu Caulcrick (6-0, 235, R-Fr.) figures to earn his share of playing time at running back in 2004 after an impressive spring. Caulcrick rushed 33 times for 224 yards (6.8 avg.) and two TDs in three scrimmages. He paced the running attack with 108 yards on 16 attempts in the final spring scrimmage, including a 13-yard TD run.

Jason Teague (5-9, 193, Jr.), who ranked third on the team in rushing with 244 yards (5.2 avg.) and scored three TDs in 2003, provides depth at running back.

Senior Kevin Vickerson hopes to regain the form that made him one of the Spartans’ most productive defensive linemen in 2002. Vickerson has 14 career tackles for losses, including four sacks.

SMITH TALKS ABOUT THE RUNNING BACKS:

“The running game was a positive in the spring. It’s going to be important that we get the running game going this fall, so we can take some pressure off of our inexperienced quarterbacks.

“We’ve developed a solid 1-2 punch at running back with DeAndra Cobb and Jehuu Caulcrick.

“DeAndra is a big-play threat that can break any run and put it in the end zone. He not only has the ability to make guys miss tackles, but he can break tackles too when he runs with toughness.

“Jehuu is a big, bruising back that has the ability to punish tacklers. He’s a load carrying the football, especially when he runs with reckless abandon. He’s like having a battering ram at running back. Plus, Jehuu has the size to help protect the quarterback on passing plays.

“Both of those guys need to work on catching the football out of the backfield.”

DEFENSIVE LINE

The most difficult task on defense is retooling a defensive line that lost five lettermen, including three starters. Gone are defensive end Greg Taplin and defensive tackle Matthias Askew, who combined for 16 sacks (101 yards) in 2003.

Clifford Dukes (6-3, 258, Sr.) anchors the defensive line from the RUSH end position. Dukes, a preseason favorite for the Ted Hendricks Defensive End of the Year Award, produced 57 tackles in 2003, including seven sacks (32 yards).

The projected starter opposite Dukes at STUD end is Clifton Ryan (6-2, 288, So.). In 2003, Ryan contributed 16 tackles, including two for losses (22 yards).

The defensive tackle jobs belong to Kevin Vickerson (6-4, 295, Sr.) and Brandon McKinney (6-3, 327, Jr.). Vickerson recorded 18 tackles in 2003, including six for losses (27 yards). McKinney, who started four games in 2002, missed 12 games last season with a foot (stress reaction) injury.

Senior Clifford Dukes finished second among Spartan defensive linemen in tackles in 2003, with 57 including seven sacks.

Senior Ronald Stanley recorded a career-best 101 tackles in 2003, including five double-figure games.

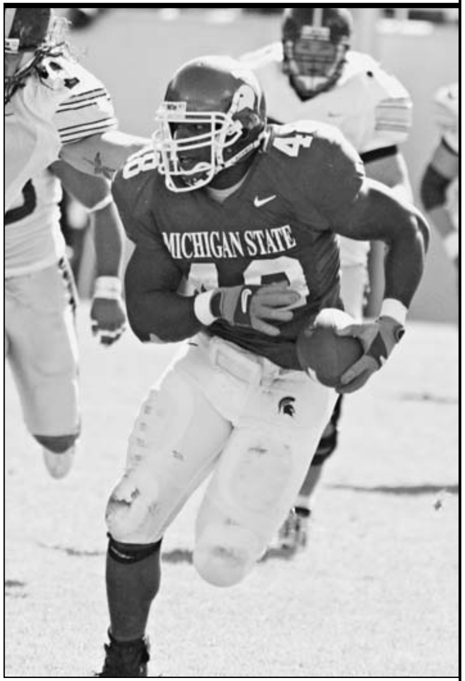
Look for defensive tackle Joe Toth (6-2, 281, R-Fr.) and defensive end Daryl Melvin (6-5, 258, R-Jr.) to push for playing time.

SMITH TALKS ABOUT THE DEFENSIVE LINE:

"The defensive line scares me because we're thin and inexperienced. We're going to have to count on some new faces to provide immediate help here.



Junior Seth Mitchell led the Spartans in tackles in Big Ten play in 2003, averaging 10.6 stops per game.

"What I like about Clifford Dukes is his motor. Cliff plays as hard and as fast as he can every snap. He has an infectious attitude that the other players really respond to. As the RUSH end, we're going to move Cliff around more and hopefully, he can be even more disruptive.

"Cliff isn't the biggest, fastest or strongest guy on the field, but he's a relentless competitor. It's amazing how many plays he runs down 10, 20 yards down the field. He flies around the football and that's why he comes up with so many big plays at crunch time.

"I'd really like to see Cliff take the next step as a leader. There's no question that he has his teammates' undivided attention on the field, but I'd like to see him emerge as a leader off the field and in the weight room.

"Clifton Ryan, a solid backup last year, showed great promise in the spring.

"I'm counting on Kevin Vickerson to add some stability at defensive tackle. I truly expect him to do many of the things that Matthias Askew did for us last year. Kevin needs to take up space and plug up the middle.

"We really have to keep our fingers crossed on Brandon McKinney, so that he remains healthy. He's still struggling to get back into playing shape. Brandon needs to really emerge as a consistent contributor.

"Joe Toth is a talented, young player. I really like his attitude, work ethic and toughness. And I think Daryl Melvin adds some athleticism on the edge."

LINEBACKER

Ronald Stanley (6-0, 234, Sr.) and Seth Mitchell (6-2, 255, Jr.) are the mainstays at linebacker as the Spartans return two of three starters.

Stanley, a four-year starter, ranked third on the team in tackles in 2003, registering a career-best 101 hits. He needs 86 tackles in 2004 to crack MSU's all-time top 10.

Mitchell finished second on the team in tackles with a career-high 103 stops, including seven for losses (24 yards).

Former running back Tyrell Dortch (5-10, 208, Sr.) is penciled in the starting lineup at the BANDIT position. The spring experiment became a permanent move for Dortch after he consistently produced big plays from his new home.

Kaleb Thornhill (6-1, 232, R-Fr.) also should figure in the playing rotation at linebacker.

SMITH TALKS ABOUT THE LINEBACKERS:

"We're still a little thin at linebacker but overall, we're more athletic. This is certainly an area where true freshmen might be able to contribute right away.

"Ronald Stanley is a stabilizing force on defense. Ronald plays hard every down and seems to make plays all over the field. He's a smart player, who simply doesn't make mistakes. Ronald also does a fantastic job making sure everyone else gets aligned in the proper position. He seems to be a different player this year because he played hurt (shoulder) most of last season.

"Seth Mitchell is also a different player this year because he's finally healthy. Last year, Seth was a situational player because of his knee injury. We didn't ask him to drop back into pass coverage, so he played almost exclusively in running situations. He's a physical player that adds a great deal of toughness to the lineup.

"I truly believe Tyrell Dortch is a wild card at the BANDIT position. I honestly can't believe how quickly he's picked up the system. It's a perfect fit for Tyrell because he's physical enough and skilled enough to handle all the responsibilities. Tyrell doesn't mind sticking his nose inside the box to deliver a hit. He also has the quickness and change of direction to help in pass coverage. Tyrell also brings a lot of energy and emotion to the field.

"With our lack of depth, we're certainly counting on Kaleb Thornhill to contribute some quality minutes."

DEFENSIVE BACK

Michigan State will build its 2004 defense around its secondary that features eight returning lettermen, including six players with starting experience.

Free safety Jason Harmon (5-11, 202, Sr.) ranks as Michigan State's most experienced player in the defensive backfield, with 22 career starts. In 2003, Harmon led the Spartans in tackles (career-best 108), interceptions (3 for 74 yards), forced fumbles (4) and defensive production points (159). He truly excelled down the stretch, averaging 9.5 tackles (76 total) over the last eight games.

Senior Jason Harmon played as well as anyone during the second half of the 2003 season, averaging 9.5 tackles over the last eight games.

Eric Smith (6-1, 193, Jr.) enters his second season as the starting strong safety. Smith led the team in tackles (68) and production points (119) through eight games in 2003. Despite missing the final four games with a knee injury, he finished sixth on the squad with 69 tackles, including five for losses (19 yards).

The cornerback jobs belong to Roderick Maples (5-10, 190, Sr.) and converted running back Jaren Hayes (5-9, 186, Jr.). Maples produced 70 tackles, two interceptions and nine pass break-ups in 2003.

Next in terms of experience are cornerbacks Ashton Watson (5-11, 180, Jr.) and Darren Barnett (6-0, 184, Jr.) and free safety Greg Cooper (5-11, 184, So.).

SMITH TALKS ABOUT THE DEFENSIVE BACKS:

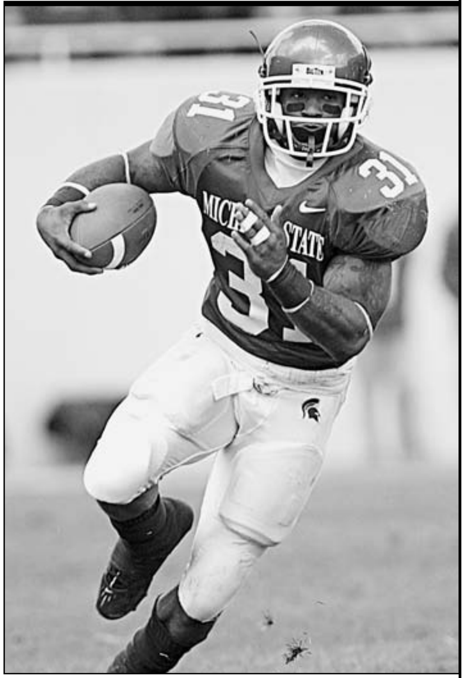
"The secondary showed the biggest improvement during spring practice. The confidence level is extremely high in the secondary. I really believe that we're going to be able to be more aggressive in rushing the passer this season because we're skilled enough to cover receivers.

"We have two of the best safeties around in Jason Harmon and Eric Smith. Jason and Eric provide consistent production. I'm looking for Jason to step forward and become more of a vocal leader this season.

"Roderick Maples is a solid corner, who has a chance to become a great player. I really like Roderick's attitude. He's worked hard to improve his strength and he has the foot speed to cover some of the best receivers in this league.

"Jaren Hayes came over and really solidified the other corner position. I love the way he comes to the field and competes every day. Jaren adds a lot of athleticism and quickness to the lineup. He still has a lot to learn about the position, but we feel very comfortable with him on the field. The bottom line — he's a playmaker.

"I also like Ashton Watson's attitude. He isn't going to relinquish that spot in the starting lineup without another battle in preseason camp. Jaren and Ashton have a healthy competition brewing."



Junior Jaren Hayes adds athleticism, quickness and toughness to the defensive backfield. Last year, Hayes led the Spartans in rushing yards (609), all-purpose yards (1,064) and TDs (8).

SPECIAL TEAMS

Michigan State features one of the nation's top kicking tandems, in punter Brandon Fields (6-6, 234, So.) and placekicker Dave Rayner (6-2, 209, Sr.).

Fields, a second-team All-America selection by The Sporting News in 2003, led the Big Ten and ranked No. 2 in the NCAA with his 46.4-yard punting average. It marked the second-best single-season punting average in Spartan history, trailing only All-American Greg Montgomery who averaged 47.8 yards in 1986. Fields hit 22 punts 50 or more yards and had 17 kicks downed inside the opponent's 20.

Rayner, a Lou Groza Award seminfinalist in 2003, ranked among the NCAA leaders in field goals (tied for 10th at 1.69 made per game) and scoring (28th at 8.1 points per game). He led the team in scoring with a career-best 105 points, hitting 22-of-29 field-goal attempts (.759) and 39-of-40 extra-point tries (.975). His 22 field goals tied MSU's single-season record set by All-American Paul Edinger in 1998.

DeAndra Cobb (5-10, 197, Sr.), a first-team All-America selection by Collegefootballnews.com, led the Big Ten and ranked No. 11 in the NCAA in kickoff returns with his 27.2-yard average in 2003. His 763 kickoff return yards rank third on MSU's single-season chart. Cobb tied the NCAA single-season record by returning three kickoffs for touchdowns: 93 yards vs. Ohio State, 100 vs. Minnesota and 94 vs. Rutgers.

SMITH TALKS ABOUT THE SPECIAL TEAMS

"There's no way we win eight games last year without the production of our special teams. We will continue to be aggressive on special teams in the hope of stealing a few more wins in 2004.

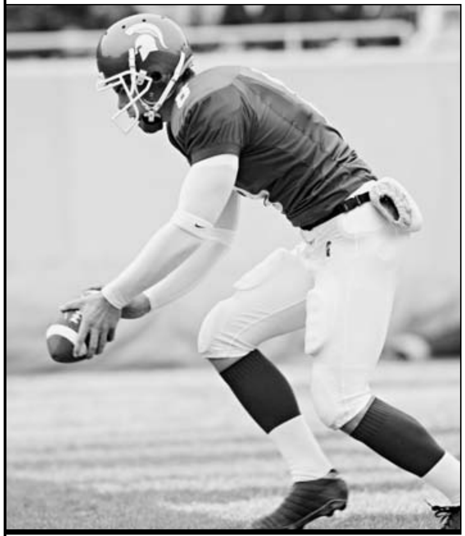
"Dave Rayner has an opportunity to become a big-time weapon. There's no question that he has the ability and leg strength to kick at the next level. Dave has worked hard to improve his accuracy, and he's improved his mental approach to the game. Also don't be surprised to see Dave continue in his role as the rugby punter.

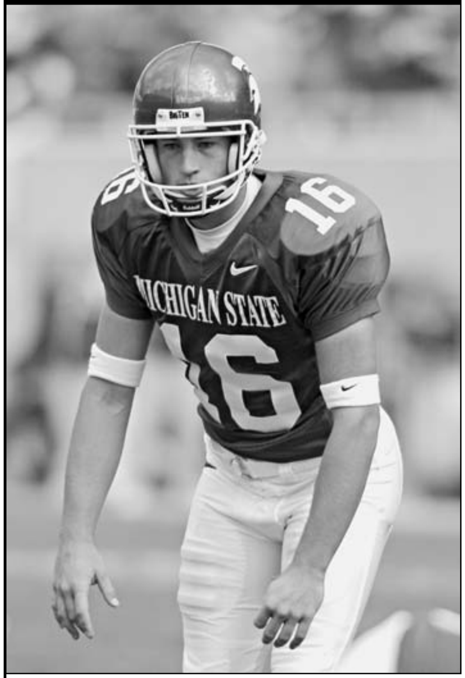
"Brandon Fields put up some impressive numbers last season. Brandon got off to a remarkable start and then trailed off at the end of the season. I don't know if his leg got tired, but I'm expecting greater consistency from Brandon this fall.

"I don't imagine that DeAndra Cobb is going to get too many opportunities to return kickoffs this fall. DeAndra became a true home run threat every time he touched the ball last season. He put fear in the heart of plenty of kickers because he has tremendous acceleration to and through the hole. We really don't expect teams to kick to DeAndra. If the kicker can't put the ball through the end zone, he's probably going to keep it on the ground or pop it up high into the air. Regardless, we're going to have to figure out a way to make something happen out of those chances.

"We're definitely going to try to get greater production out of our punt return unit. We may have to become more aggressive in attempting to block more punts."

Sophomore Brandon Fields led the Big Ten and ranked No. 2 nationally in punting with his 46.4-yard average in 2003.





Senior Dave Rayner already ranks among MSU's all-time leaders in extra points (fourth with 109 made), field goals (sixth with 40 made) and scoring (seventh with 229 career points).

John L. Smith is one of 14 head coaches in college football history to take three different teams (Utah State, Louisville and Michigan State) to bowl games, including one of just four active coaches to accomplish this feat.

John L. Smith

HEAD COACH

Second Year

The resurgence of the Michigan State football program began on Dec. 19, 2002, when John L. Smith became the University's 23rd head coach.

Smith brought with him a reputation as a program builder from his previous head-coaching tenures at Idaho, Utah State and Louisville. He has only enhanced that track record at Michigan State, earning the Dave McClain Coach of the Year award as selected by the Big Ten media panel. Smith, who inherited a team that went 4-8 in 2002, orchestrated the nation's fifth-biggest regular-season turnaround by producing an 8-4 record in 2003. After finishing eighth in the league with a 2-6 mark in 2002, the Spartans climbed to fourth in the final Big Ten standings at 5-3.

His eight wins marked the most by a first-year coach in school history. Smith also became only the second first-year coach in Spartan history to earn a postseason bowl bid (Alamo Bowl vs. Nebraska), joining Nick Saban who guided the 1995 team to a 6-5-1 record including a trip to the Independence Bowl.

Michigan State opened the 2003 campaign with a 7-1 record – its best start since 1966. The Spartans put together a five-game winning streak that featured victories over three ranked opponents: Notre Dame (NR/No. 23), Iowa (No. 13/9) and Minnesota (No. 25/19). Following its 44-38 victory at Minnesota, Michigan State ascended to No. 9 in The Associated Press poll – its first appearance in the AP Top 10 since the 1999 season. In addition, the Spartans opened Big Ten play 4-0 for just the third time since joining the league in 1953.

Smith wasted little time injecting doses of confidence and fiery competitiveness. His influences were evident in all three phases of the game. Veteran quarterback Jeff Smoker thrived in the spread offense, leading the Big Ten in both passing (261.2 yards per game) and total offense (252.2 ypg.). Thanks to his aggressive defensive philosophy, the Spartans led the Big Ten in sacks (45 for 299 yards) and takeaways (29) while finishing second in turnover margin (+11). Michigan State boasted arguably one of the nation's best kicking tandems, in punter Brandon Fields (No. 2 in NCAA with 46.3 avg.) and placekicker Dave Rayner (No. 10 in NCAA with school-record 22 made field goals). In addition, All-American DeAndra Cobb ranked No. 11 nationally in kickoff returns with his 27.2-yard average, including an NCAA-record tying three runbacks for touchdowns.

The 55-year-old Smith has compiled a 118-65 record (.645) in 15 years as a college head coach, including an impressive 76-28 mark (.731) in conference games. He ranks No. 14 among active NCAA I-A football coaches in career victories (118) and No. 19 in career winning percentage (.645). Smith has produced six conference champions (two Conference USA, two Big West and two Big Sky). Twelve of his 15 teams have participated in postseason play, including seven-straight bowl appearances. Smith is one of 14 head coaches in college football history to take three different teams to bowl games, including one of just four active coaches to accomplish this feat (Mack Brown: Tulane, North Carolina and Texas; Dennis Franchione: New Mexico, TCU and Alabama; and Ken Hatfield: Air Force, Arkansas and Clemson).

Smith came to Michigan State following five seasons at Louisville (1998-2002) where he led the Cardinals to unprecedented success. He put together a 41-21 worksheet (.661), including five-straight bowl appearances and back-to-back Conference USA titles in 2000-01. The five bowl trips equaled the number of postseason appearances Louisville had made prior to his arrival and the five consecutive winning seasons marked a first for the program.

- The 2002 Cardinals went 7-6 overall, including a 38-15 loss to Marshall in the GMAC Bowl. Louisville finished third in the C-USA standings at 5-3, one game behind co-champions Texas Christian and Cincinnati. The highlight of the 2002 season came on Sept. 26 when the Cardinals knocked off No. 4 Florida State in overtime, 26-20. Louisville ranked among the NCAA leaders in rushing defense (No. 17 at 113.0 ypg.) and total defense (No. 22 at 319.9 ypg.). The Cardinals produced a league-best six first-team All-Conference USA selections, including Offensive Player of the Year Dave Ragone (quarterback) and Special Teams Player of the Year Broderick Clark (kick returner).
- In 2001, Smith earned Conference USA Coach of the Year honors after leading Louisville to a school-record 11 victories, including a 28-10 triumph over Brigham Young in the Liberty Bowl. Louisville became the first program in C-USA history to win back-to-back league titles while Ragone and defensive end Dewayne White became the first C-USA players from the same school to receive offensive and defensive player of the year honors in the same season. The Cardinals were ranked among The Associated Press Top 25 for seven straight weeks, finishing No. 17 (No. 16 in USA Today/ESPN final poll).
- The 2000 team won its last four regular-season games to claim Louisville's first Conference USA championship and a berth in the Liberty Bowl. Louisville finished 9-3 overall, posting its most wins since 1993, while also making its first appearance in the national polls in seven years. For his efforts, the Football Writers Association of America named Smith one of three finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award. The 2000 Cardinals featured a high-scoring offense and a relentless defense. Louisville averaged better than 35 points per game during the regular season, scoring touchdowns 73 percent of the time it reached the red zone. The Cardinals also ranked among the NCAA's leaders in rushing defense (No. 4) and total defense (No. 15). Louisville's defense led the nation in turnovers forced with 37, including 10 interceptions from All-America safety Anthony Floyd.
- In 1999, Louisville won four of its last five regular-season games en route to a 7-5 record overall, 4-2 in C-USA play. For the second year in a row, the Cardinals were listed among the nation's top 10 in scoring, passing offense and total offense. Six players earned first-team All-Conference USA honors while five rookies were named to the all-freshman team.

- The revival of Louisville's football program began in 1998. Smith, who inherited a team that went winless in the league and finished 1-10 in 1997, produced the biggest turnaround among NCAA I-A programs in 1998 by guiding the Cardinals to a 7-5 record overall, 4-2 in C-USA action. Louisville led the nation in total offense, averaging 559.6 yards per game, while also ranking among the NCAA leaders in passing offense (No. 3 at 408.9 ypg.) and scoring (No. 6 at 40.4 ppg.). The Cardinals topped the 50-point mark four times in 1998, including three 60-point games. Quarterback Chris Redman finished second in the nation in total offense, averaging 400.9 yards per game. Louisville broke or tied 84 school or C-USA records in Smith's first season.

Prior to his appointment at Louisville, Smith posted a 16-18 ledger (.471) in three seasons at Utah State. He took over a Utah State program that had produced only two winning seasons in the previous 15 years and led the Aggies to consecutive Big West Conference crowns in 1996-97, finishing 6-5 and 6-6, respectively.

In 1997, Utah State won four of its last five regular-season games and earned a trip to the Humanitarian Bowl. It marked the program's second bowl appearance since 1961. In 1997, the Aggies were listed among the NCAA leaders in total offense (No. 9 at 449.4 yards per game), passing offense (No. 14 at 280.5 ypg.), scoring offense (No. 17 at 33.6 points) and rushing defense (No. 25 at 115.6 ypg.).

In 1996, Utah State forged a 6-5 overall mark despite facing a demanding non-league schedule, with home games against Utah and Brigham Young and road contests at Southern Miss, Oklahoma State and Texas Tech. The Aggies ranked among the nation's top 10 in passing offense (No. 7 at 317.5 yards per game) and total offense (No. 9 at 468.5 ypg.).

The Aggies compiled a 4-7 record overall in 1995 but narrowly missed posting a winning season, losing four games by a combined total of 14 points. Smith's one-back offense produced impressive numbers in 1995, with Utah State ranking among the NCAA leaders in passing offense (No. 14 at 270.5 ypg.) and total offense (No. 16 at 434.2). The defense certainly did its share to keep the Aggies in the Big West title race, allowing fewer than 16 points per game in league play. Utah State finished among the league leaders in every defensive category – second in total defense, second in passing defense and third in rushing defense.

A native of Idaho Falls, Idaho, Smith arrived at Utah State following six seasons at the University of Idaho where he became the winningest coach in school history. His six-year mark of 53-21 (.716) at Idaho included a 34-11 Big Sky Conference record (.756) and five postseason appearances, including three-straight trips to the NCAA I-AA playoffs from 1992-94. Those five playoff teams also finished the year ranked among the nation's top 20.

His 1994 team won its first seven games, including a 48-38 road victory over eventual Big West Conference champion UNLV, en route to a 9-3 record, a trip to the I-AA playoffs and No. 8 final ranking.

His 1993 squad climbed to No. 1 in the polls following a 28-17 victory at Utah. Idaho lost to eventual national champion Youngstown State, 35-16, in the I-AA semifinals to end up 11-3 (No. 11 final ranking). The Vandals led the nation in both scoring (47.5 points) and total offense (532.0 yards).

His 1992 team won the Big Sky Conference title with a 6-1 record, finished the year ranked fifth nationally and its 9-3 ledger included an impressive road victory over Colorado State, 37-34. Idaho again was listed among the national leaders in total offense (second at 490.0 yards) and scoring (third at 40.6 points).

His 1991 ballclub went 6-5 and ranked second nationally in passing offense (336.3 yards) and third in total offense (482.4 yards).

His 1990 team put together a seven-game winning streak on its way to a 9-4 record and No. 13 national ranking. Idaho lost to eventual national champion Georgia Southern, 28-27, in the I-AA quarterfinals. The Vandals ranked among the national leaders in scoring (second at 37.2 points) and total offense (fifth at 454.6 yards).

His 1989 team won a school-record nine-straight games and became the first team in Big Sky Conference history to complete the league schedule with a perfect 8-0 record. The team finished the year ranked fourth nationally at 9-3.

Smith tutored 12 first-team All-Americans at Idaho, including Walter Payton Award (I-AA Player of the Year) winners John Friesz (1989) and Doug Nussmeier (1993).

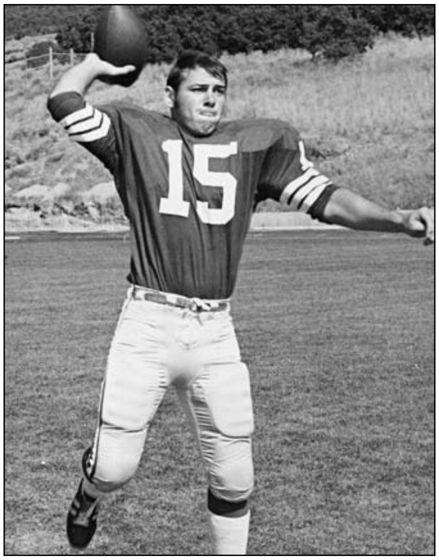
Prior to taking over the Idaho head coaching position, Smith spent two years as the defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Washington State (1987-88) where he served under former Miami (Fla.) and Oregon State head coach Dennis Erickson, now in his second year as head coach of the National Football League's San Francisco 49ers. He was Erickson's defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Wyoming during the 1986 season. Smith began his first stint at Idaho in 1982 where he again served as Erickson's defensive coordinator and assistant head coach for four years (1982-85).

His college coaching credits also include stops at Nevada (1977-81) and Montana (1972-76). During his tenure as defensive coordinator at Nevada, the Wolf Pack led the nation in total defense, scoring defense and rushing defense in 1980. He began his coaching career in 1971 as a graduate assistant at Weber State.

A linebacker and quarterback at Weber State, Smith earned Big Sky Conference scholar-athlete honors in 1971-72. He received his undergraduate degree in physical education with a minor in math in 1971. Smith earned a master's of science degree in physical education from the University of Montana in 1974.

He lettered in three sports – football, basketball and track – while attending Bonneville High School in Idaho Falls, Idaho. In 2000, Sports Illustrated recognized Smith as one of Idaho's top 100 athletes of the 20th century. For his accomplishments as both an athlete and head coach, he was inducted into the Idaho Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001.

Married to the former Diana Flora of Idaho Falls, Smith and his wife are the parents of three children, Nicholas (25), Kayse (22) and Sam (21).



Smith has earned quite a reputation for his thrill-seeking adventures. Perhaps, a message hanging on the wall behind his desk in the Duffy Daugherty Football Building provides the best insight into his daredevil mentality: “Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away.”

Here are brief recaps of Smith’s most recent adventures:

- In July 2004, he took his entire family on a wildlife photo safari in Kenya. Smith and his sons left the safari early and traveled to Tanzania to climb a 19,340-foot peak on Mount Kilimanjaro.
- In December 2003, Smith participated in an orientation flight on a T-38 Talon at Randolph Air Force Base, Texas.
- In 2002, he skydived from a Cessna at 14,000 feet over Greensburg, Ind.
- In 2001, Smith ran with the bulls in Pamplona, Spain.
- In 2000, he attended Officer Candidates School with the U.S. Marines in Quantico, Va.

Dave Baldwin

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/TIGHT ENDS

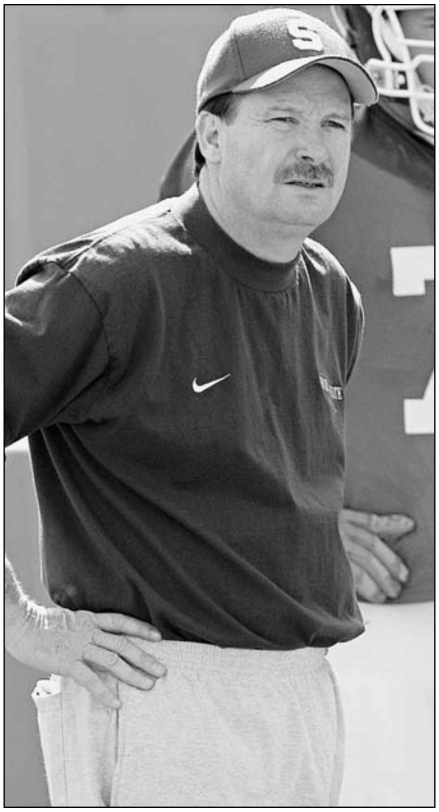
Second Season

Former San Jose State and Cal State Northridge head coach Dave Baldwin begins his second season as Michigan State's offensive coordinator and tight ends coach.

In its 2004 preseason publication, The Sporting News ranks the 49-year-old Baldwin as the Big Ten's top offensive coordinator.

In 2003, Baldwin earned national recognition for how quickly he helped quarterback Jeff Smoker grasp the spread offense. Smoker, a second-team All-Big Ten selection, led the league in passing (261.2 yards per game) and total offense (252.2 ypg.). His 302 pass completions, 488 pass attempts, 3,395 passing yards and 21 TD passes all represent the top single-season totals in Spartan history. Smoker recorded a single-season record 10 200-yard passing games, including six 300-yard performances. A key to his throwing success was Smoker's ability to utilize all of the weapons at his disposal in the spread offense as seven different receivers each caught at least 20 passes.

Michigan State amassed a school single-season record 3,510 passing yards in 2003. The Spartans also produced 4,776 total yards and 363 total points – the fourth-best single-season figures in Spartan history. Another key to Michigan State's remarkable turnaround was the offense's ability to take care of the football. The Spartans committed just 18 turnovers – the Big Ten's fourth-lowest total (No. 15 in the NCAA). In 2003, Michigan State played five complete games without committing a turnover, including a streak of four-straight contests (Iowa, Indiana, Illinois and Minnesota).



Baldwin came to Michigan State following one season at Baylor where he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Kevin Steele. In 2002, Baylor finished sixth in the Big 12 Conference in passing offense, averaging 231.5 yards per game. Senior wide receiver Reggie Newhouse, a second-team All-Big 12 selection, set Baylor single-season records for receptions (75) and receiving yards (1,140). Newhouse also ranked among the NCAA leaders in catches (No. 18 at 6.25 per game) and receiving yards (No. 18 at 95.0 per game).

Baldwin spent the 2001 season as offensive coordinator at Cincinnati under Rick Minter, helping the Bearcats to a 7-5 record and a trip to the Motor City Bowl. Cincinnati ranked among the Conference USA leaders in every offensive category, finishing second in passing offense (269.8 yards per game), third in total offense (416.3 yards), third in scoring offense (29.1 points) and fourth in rushing offense (146.5 yards). The Bearcats also were listed among the national leaders in passing offense (No. 25), total offense (No. 36) and scoring offense (No. 36). Baldwin coached 2001 C-USA Freshman of the Year Gino Guidugli, who finished second in the league in passing (257.3 yards) and third in passing efficiency (137.5 rating). Cincinnati's offense also produced C-USA's leading receiver in LaDaris Vann, who caught 6.64 passes per game.

Baldwin previously served as head coach and offensive play-caller at San Jose State for four years (1997-2000) where he compiled an 18-27 record (.400), including three straight wins over Stanford (1998-2000).

In 2000, San Jose State produced a 7-5 worksheet – its best mark in eight years – including victories over Stanford (40-27) and ninth-ranked Texas Christian (27-24), that ended the nation's longest winning streak at 12 games. The Spartans ranked among the NCAA leaders in every offensive category in 2000, finishing No. 26 in rushing offense (189.1 yards per game), No. 26 in total offense (417.3 yards), No. 30 in scoring offense (31.2 points) and No. 40 in passing offense (228.3 yards). San Jose State's offense also featured the nation's fourth-leading rusher in Deonce Whitaker, who averaged 157.7 yards per game.

His 1999 San Jose State team knocked off Rose Bowl-bound Stanford, 44-39. The Spartans again finished among the national leaders in passing offense in 1999, ranking No. 30 at 249.0 yards per game.

San Jose State opened the 1998 season with a 35-23 victory at Stanford – its first win over a Pac-10 opponent in eight years.

His 1997 Spartan squad produced a 4-7 record overall, including a 4-4 mark in Western Athletic Conference play. It marked the first time in four years that the Spartans had reached the .500 mark in league games. In 1997, San Jose State also posted its first win over a ranked opponent since 1990, upsetting No. 24 Air Force, 25-22.

Prior to taking over the San Jose State head coaching position, Baldwin posted a 9-12 record (.429) in two seasons at Cal State Northridge (1995-96). In 1996, he guided Cal State Northridge to a 7-4 mark – the school's first winning season in four years at the NCAA I-AA level.

Baldwin produced a 31-21 record (.596) in five years as a head coach at the junior college level. In 1994, he led Santa Rosa (Calif.) Junior College to an 8-3 ledger, including a trip to the Lions Bowl. He went 23-18 (.561) in four seasons at Santa Barbara City College (1990-93). In 1991, Baldwin earned California Community College Region III Coach of the Year honors after helping the Vaqueros to a 9-2 record and a berth in the Potato Bowl.

He spent 10 years as an assistant coach under Jack Elway, first as a graduate assistant at Cal State Northridge in 1979 and then as receivers coach at San Jose State for four years (1981-84) and Stanford for four seasons (1985-88). While coaching at San Jose State, he also worked alongside offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Dennis Erickson. In 1988, Baldwin became the Cardinal passing game coordinator.

The 1986 Stanford team finished 8-4 and earned a trip to the Gator Bowl. It marked the only postseason appearance for the Cardinal in the 1980s.

During his four-year stint as an assistant at San Jose State, the Spartans produced three winning seasons, including the 1981 Pacific Coast Athletic Association championship and a berth in the California Raisin Bowl. Baldwin also tutored four Spartan receivers that went on to play in the National Football League: Mark Nichols, Stacey Bailey, Mervyn Fernandez and Tim Kearse.

He began his coaching career in 1978 as an assistant coach at Granada Hills (Calif.) High School.

Baldwin earned his bachelor's degree in physical education, health and recreation from Cal State Northridge in 1978. He received a master's degree in physical education administration from St. Mary's College (Calif.) in 1986.

Married to the former Kathleen Keiley, Baldwin and his wife are the parents of three children, Sean (25), Ryan (20) and Keiley (17).

Reggie Mitchell

RUNNING BACKS/ RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Sixth Season

Flint native Reggie Mitchell begins his sixth season at Michigan State, his fifth year as running backs coach. Following the 2002 season, Mitchell took over the duties as recruiting coordinator for head coach John L. Smith.

In Jan. 2004, Mitchell participated in the first NCAA Advanced Coaching Program, joining 19 other ethnic minority assistants for the three-day event in Orlando, Fla.

In 2003, Mitchell coached Jaren Hayes, who set a Spartan single-season record for receptions by a running back, with 48 for 414 yards and three scores. Hayes also led the team in rushing yards (609), all-purpose yards (1,064) and touchdowns (8 total).

During his Michigan State tenure, Mitchell has tutored two NFL first-round draft picks, in wide receiver Plaxico Burress (Pittsburgh Steelers, 2000) and running back T.J. Duckett (Atlanta Falcons, 2002), plus recruited a third in Charles Rogers, the No. 2 selection overall by the Detroit Lions in the 2003 NFL Draft.

In 2001, Duckett rushed for 1,420 yards – the fifth-best single-season total in school history. Duckett, MSU's fifth all-time leading rusher with 3,379 career yards, became the first Spartan running back to be drafted in the first round (No. 18 overall) since Lorenzo White (Houston Oilers) in 1988.

In 1999, Mitchell coached the wide receivers, including Burress, who set then MSU single-season records for receptions (66), receiving yards (1,142) and TD catches (12).

The 43-year-old Mitchell came to Michigan State following two seasons as the running backs coach at Minnesota. He followed Glen Mason to Minnesota after a nine-year stint at Kansas, where he coached running backs for two years (1995-96), defensive ends for four seasons (1991-94) and defensive line for three years (1988-90). From 1992-95, Kansas won 29 games — the best four-year total in 85 seasons. In 1995, the Jayhawks went 10-2 and finished ninth in the final Associated Press Poll, following a 51-30 victory over UCLA in the Aloha Bowl. Kansas compiled an 8-4 overall record in 1992, including a 23-20 triumph over BYU in the Aloha Bowl, and stood No. 22 in the final AP Poll.

Mitchell first joined Coach Mason as wide receivers coach at Kent State in 1987. Prior to joining Mason, he coached the running backs at Western Michigan in 1986. He served as a graduate assistant coach under Bo Schembechler at Michigan in 1985. His first full-time coaching assignment came at Ferris State in 1984 where he worked with the wide receivers.

Mitchell earned team MVP honors in 1981 after gaining 1,068 yards rushing. He received a bachelor's degree in parks and recreation from Central Michigan in 1984.

Doug Nussmeier

QUARTERBACKS COACH

Second Season

Doug Nussmeier is in his second season as quarterbacks coach at Michigan State.

Nussmeier deserves much of the credit for the rapid adjustment Jeff Smoker made to the spread offense in 2003. Smoker, a second-team All-Big Ten selection, led the league in passing (261.2 yards per game) and total offense (252.2 ypg.). His 302 pass completions, 488 pass attempts, 3,395 passing yards and 21 TD passes all represent the top single-season totals in Spartan history. He recorded a single-season record 10 200-yard passing games, including six 300-yard performances. Smoker, who was selected by the St. Louis Rams in the sixth round of 2004 the NFL Draft, became the first Spartan quarterback to be drafted since 1996 when Tony Banks went in the second round to the Rams.

The 33-year-old Nussmeier came to Michigan State following two years as an assistant coach in the Canadian Football League.

In 2002, he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Joe Paopao for the expansion Ottawa Renegades. Ottawa ranked seventh in the CFL in passing offense, averaging 221.0 yards per game, with quarterback Dan Crowley throwing for 2,513 yards and 16 touchdowns.

Nussmeier spent the 2001 season as quarterbacks coach with the British Columbia Lions. In 2001, B.C. finished third in the CFL in total offense (357.8 yards per game) and fifth in passing offense (246.1 yards). Chris Smeland

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/SAFETIES

Second Season

Chris Smeland, one of five assistants to follow head coach John L. Smith from Louisville to Michigan State, begins his second season as defensive coordinator and safeties coach. Smeland has been a defensive coordinator for 21 years, including the last nine seasons under Coach Smith.

Under Smeland's leadership, the Spartan defense played a major role in the team's remarkable turnaround in 2003. Michigan State led the Big Ten in sacks (45 for 299 yards), takeaways (29) and interceptions (15). The Spartans also ranked among the Big Ten (sixth) and NCAA leaders (27th) in rushing defense, allowing only 124.8 yards per game. In 2003, Michigan State held four opponents under the 100-yard rushing mark while permitting just nine rushing touchdowns.

The Spartans displayed dramatic improvement on the defensive side of the football in 2003, especially when you consider Smeland inherited a unit that ranked ninth in the Big Ten and No. 110 nationally (out of 117) in rushing defense in 2002, surrendering 213.8 yards per game. The 2002 Spartans also finished ninth in the Big Ten in sacks (19 for 113 yards) and takeaways (19).

The 53-year-old Smeland also coached safety Jason Harmon, who led the team in tackles (108) and production points (159) in 2003.

Smeland played an integral part in helping Louisville to a combined record of 41-21 (.661) from 1998-2002, including five straight bowl appearances and back-to-back Conference USA championships in 2000-01. He helped develop players who earned All-Conference USA honors 16 times, including seven first-team selections.

From 2000-02, Louisville's defense produced an NCAA-best 132 sacks to go along with 86 takeaways, including 54 interceptions.

In 2002, the Cardinals ranked among the NCAA leaders in rushing defense (No. 17 at 113.0 yards per game) and total defense (No. 22 at 319.9 ypg.).

In 2001, the Cardinals finished No. 10 nationally in scoring defense, permitting 17.8 points per game.

In 2000, Louisville ranked among the NCAA leaders in rushing defense (No. 4) and total defense (No. 15) while forcing a nation-best 37 turnovers. All-America safety Anthony Floyd led the NCAA with 10 interceptions (tied Akron's Dwight Smith).

During his three-year stint at Utah State (1995-97), the Aggies won consecutive Big West Conference crowns in 1996-97. Smeland tutored six first-team All-Big West selections.

In 1997, Utah State led the Big West in every defensive category and finished No. 25 nationally in rushing defense, allowing only 115.6 yards per game.

In 1995, the Aggies again ranked among the league leaders in every defensive category – finishing second in total defense, second in passing defense and third in rushing defense. Utah State allowed fewer than 16 points per game in conference play.

Smeland spent four years on the Hawaii coaching staff (1991-94), working with the inside and outside linebackers in 1991 before being elevated to defensive coordinator in 1992. The Rainbows won a share of the Western Athletic Conference championship in 1992 and finished 11-2 overall, including a 27-17 Holiday Bowl triumph over Illinois, thanks in part to a defensive unit which ranked second in the league in rushing defense (167.2 yards). Smeland tutored two first-team All-WAC selections during his tenure, including nose guard Maa Tanuvasa (1992) and linebacker Junior Faavae (1994).

He previously served as defensive coordinator at Kent State (1988-90) and Cal Poly San Luis Obispo (1982-87). His coaching credits also include stops at Nevada (offensive line, 1979-81), Colorado (outside linebackers, 1978) and Southwestern Louisiana (inside linebackers, 1977).

A four-year letterman as a defensive back at Cal Poly SLO (1970-73), Smeland earned all-conference and All-Little Coast honors as a senior. He also served as team captain in 1973.

Smeland graduated from Cal Poly SLO in 1974 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He received his MBA in finance from Colorado in 1976.

Jeff Stoutland begins his fifth year as offensive line coach at Michigan State.

In 2003, Stoutland tutored offensive tackle Steve Stewart and offensive guard Joe Tate, who each earned second-team All-Big Ten honors from the coaches.

He also coached former center Brian Ottney, who earned the Up Front Award as MSU's outstanding interior offensive lineman in 2001-02, becoming only the second repeat recipient in the 28-year history of the trophy. Former All-American Tony Mandarich won the award three-straight years from 1986-88.

Stoutland's offensive line helped pave the way for T.J. Duckett, who produced back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in 2000 and 2001. Duckett, the No. 18 pick overall in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons, rushed for 1,420 yards in 2001 – the fifth-best single-season total in Spartan history.

The 42-year-old Stoutland spent three seasons under Paul Pasqualoni at Syracuse (1997-99), where he coached the tight ends his first two years before taking over the offensive line in 1999. In addition to his coaching duties, he also served as the Orangemen's recruiting coordinator for all three years.

His full-time coaching credits include two stints at his alma mater, Southern Connecticut State, where he served as offensive coordinator for five years (1988-92) and coached inside linebackers for two seasons (1984-85).

The New York City native also served as a graduate assistant for Coach Dick MacPherson for two years at Syracuse (1986-87), working primarily with the offensive line.

Stoutland was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at inside linebacker for Coach Kevin Gilbride at Southern Connecticut State (1980-84), where he earned Little All-America honors as a senior while serving as team captain.

He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Southern Connecticut State in 1984 and received a master's degree in exercise physiology from the school in 1986.

In 2003, Michigan State led the Big Ten and ranked fifth in the NCAA in sacks, with 45 (299 yards), thanks largely to the production of the front four. The defensive line combined to account for 27 sacks. The Spartans also ranked among the Big Ten (sixth) and NCAA (27th) leaders in rushing defense, allowing only 124.8 yards per game.

Stripling tutored defensive ends Greg Taplin and Clifford Dukes, who each earned second-team All-Big Ten honors in 2003. Askew led the defensive line in tackles, with 69 including a career-best six sacks (41 yards).

Stripling, a member of Louisville's coaching staff from 2001-02, helped develop two first-team All-Conference USA selections, including Dewayne White (2001-02) and Michael Josiah (2001). During his two seasons, the Cardinals recorded 77 sacks.

In 2002, Louisville ranked second in C-USA in rushing defense (113.0 yards per game) and total defense (319.9 yards). The Cardinals also finished among the NCAA leaders in rushing defense (No. 17) and total defense (No. 22).

In 1999, Minnesota ranked among the Big Ten leaders in passing defense (first at 179.4 yards), scoring defense (second at 16.3 points) and total defense (fourth at 319.9 yards). Prior to joining the Minnesota staff, Stripling spent 13 seasons under Bill Mallory at Indiana (1984-96) where he coached the offensive and defensive lines for six years each before taking over as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 1996. He also coached Indiana's placekickers.

During his tenure at Indiana, he tutored nine All-Big Ten players while the Hoosiers made six bowl appearances.

Stripling worked as offensive line coach at Northern Illinois for four years, from 1980-83. The Huskies won the Mid-American Conference championship in 1983 with an 8-1 league record and finished 10-2 overall, including a 20-13 victory over Cal State Fullerton in the California Bowl.

Dave Sucura

Graduate Assistant

Former Spartan offensive lineman Dave Sucura is in his second season as a graduate assistant coach. He will continue to assist Michigan State's offensive coaches, working primarily with offensive line coach Jeff Stoutland.

The 26-year-old Sucura began his coaching career after spending two years in Arena Football2 with the Tennessee Valley Vipers where he played center and nose guard.

A four-year letterman from 1997-2000, Sucura started 35 consecutive games for Michigan State. He started all 12 games at left tackle in 1998 before making the move inside to left guard. In 2000, Sucura won the Danziger Award as the team's outstanding Detroit-area player. In 1999, he earned the Tommy Love Award as the team's most improved player.

Sucura, who earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Michigan State in 2001, is scheduled to complete his master's degree in sports administration in the spring 2005.

A native of Sterling Heights, Mich., Sucura was a three-year starter for Coach Rick Bye at Adlai Stevenson High School.

Married to the former Emily Canfield of Huntington Woods, Mich., Sucura and his wife reside in Lansing.

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Prior to the 1998 football regular season, the FedEx Orange, Nokia Sugar, Rose and Tostitos Fiesta Bowls joined with the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big 12, Big Ten, Pacific-10 and Southeastern Conferences and the University of Notre Dame to form the Bowl Championship Series (BCS).

The BCS was established to determine the national champion for college football while maintaining and enhancing the bowl system that has provided significant support to college football for nearly a century. The BCS has quickly become a showcase for the sport, matching the premier teams of any particular year in the culminating games of the season.

The BCS, which runs through the 2005 regular season and 2006 bowl season, consists of the Rose Bowl, Nokia Sugar Bowl, FedEx Orange Bowl and the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. Conferences with automatic berths include the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and the Southeastern Conferences.

The BCS also notes the importance of regional consideration regarding team selection. Specifically, as participating members of the BCS, the four BCS Bowls will host the following conference champions in the years the national championship game is not played at their site. Regional consideration tie-ins include the ACC or Big East champion in the FedEx Orange Bowl, the SEC champion in the Nokia Sugar Bowl, the Big Ten and the Pac-10 champions in the Rose Bowl and the Big 12 champion in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Should a BCS Bowl's regional tie-in champion be ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in the final BCS standings, when such bowl is not hosting the national championship game, the No. 1 or No. 2 ranked team shall move to the national championship game and the Bowl shall select a replacement team from the BCS pool of eligible teams. The pool will consist of any Division I-A team that is ranked among the top 12 in the final BCS standings and has achieved nine wins during the regular season excluding NCAA-exempted contests.

Through a conference revenue sharing plan, the BCS group will distribute over $40 million to non-participating BCS institutions during its eight year history. Those monies go to Division I-A and I-AA conferences in support of the game of college football. Additionally, the BCS distributes $200,000 per year to the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame for calculating and administering the BCS Standings.

This coming season, BCS leagues will receive between $14.3–17.6 million depending on the conference affiliation of the at-large participants. Should the at-large participants come from outside the original BCS conferences — ACC, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 or SEC — those participants will receive $14.3 million. If one or both at-large selections come from within the original BCS group, the conference shall receive $14.3 million for the first participant and $4.5 million for the second participant from that same league. The remaining dollars (the difference between $14.3 million and $4.5 million) will be split among the BCS conferences.

In addition, four of MSU's opponents were ranked in the final Associated Press Poll: No. 4 Ohio State, No. 6 Michigan, No. 8 Iowa and No. 20 Minnesota.

SMITH NAMED BIG TEN COACH OF THE YEAR

Michigan State first-year coach John L. Smith, who orchestrated the nation's fifth-biggest regular-season turnaround in 2003, earned the Dave McClain Coach of the Year award as selected by the Big Ten media panel. Smith, who inherited a team that went 4-8 a year ago and finished eighth in the league at 2-6, produced an 8-4 regular-season record in 2003 and climbed to fourth in the final Big Ten standings at 5-3. The 55-year-old Smith became just the fourth coach in Spartan history to earn Big Ten Coach of the Year honors, joining Denny Stolz (1974), Darryl Rogers (1978) and George Perles (1987).

His eight wins marked the most by a first-year coach in school history. Smith also became only the second first-year coach in Spartan history to earn a postseason bowl bid in his initial season, joining Nick Saban who guided the 1995 team to a 6-5-1 record including a trip to the Independence Bowl.

Michigan State opened the 2003 campaign with a 7-1 record – its best start since 1966. The Spartans put together a five-game winning streak that featured victories over three ranked opponents: Notre Dame (NR/No. 23), Iowa (No. 13/9) and Minnesota (No. 25/19). Following its 44-38 victory at Minnesota, Michigan State ascended to No. 9 in The Associated Press poll – its first appearance in the AP Top 10 since the 1999 season. In addition, the Spartans opened Big Ten play 4-0 for just the third time since joining the league in 1953.

Here's a closer look at the NCAA's (I-A) most improved teams during the 2003 regular season:

TAKING CARE OF THE PIGSKIN

Michigan State first-year head coach John L. Smith and offensive coordinator Dave Baldwin preached the importance of ball security in executing the spread offense, and the Spartans' skill position players responded to the sermon. In 2003, Michigan State committed just 18 turnovers – the Big Ten's fourth-lowest total (No. 15 in the NCAA). The Spartans lost just three fumbles – the NCAA's best mark.

Michigan State played five complete games without committing a turnover, including a streak of four straight contests (Iowa, Indiana, Illinois and Minnesota). The Spartans came within three seconds of extending that streak to five games in a row, but Jeff Smoker's Hail Mary pass into the end zone against Michigan was intercepted by Scott McClintock as time expired.

TAKEAWAYS FUEL SPARTAN TURNAROUND

Michigan State generated 26 percent of its scoring off turnovers in 2003 (7.4 points per game). The Spartans ranked among the Big Ten (second) and NCAA (tied for 10th) leaders in turnover margin (+11 overall). Michigan State parlayed 29 takeaways into 96 points, while its opponents converted 18 Spartan miscues into 52 points.

The Spartans forced at least one turnover in all 12 regular-season games, scoring 13 or more points on three occasions: 13 points vs. Iowa (four takeaways), 21 vs. Illinois (three) and 17 vs. Minnesota (three). Michigan State failed to produce points off turnovers just three times in 2003 – in back-to-back games vs. Ohio State and Wisconsin and vs. Nebraska in the Alamo Bowl.

By comparison, Michigan State ranked eighth in the Big Ten and No. 83 nationally in turnover margin (-7 overall; -0.58 per game) in 2002.

MANY HAPPY SPARTAN RETURNS

Michigan State scored seven non-offensive touchdowns in 2003, including three kickoff, two fumble and two interception returns.

DeAndra Cobb returned an NCAA-record tying three kickoffs for TDs, including a 93-yarder vs. Ohio State, a 100-yarder vs. Minnesota and a 94-yarder vs. Rutgers.

The Spartan defense produced four TDs, with defensive end Clifford Dukes (65 yards vs. Michigan) and free safety Jason Harmon (52 yards vs. Illinois) returning fumbles for scores. Defensive end Greg Taplin (40 yards vs. Notre Dame) and BANDIT Monquiz Wedlow (29 yards vs. Rutgers) returned interceptions for TDs.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE A YEAR MAKES

In 2003, Michigan State ranked among the Big Ten (sixth) and NCAA (27th) leaders in rushing defense, allowing only 124.8 yards per game. Opposing ball carriers averaged just 3.2 yards per rush. In addition, the Spartans permitted just nine rushing touchdowns.

Michigan State held four opponents under the 100-yard rushing mark in 2003 – something it accomplished only once during the 2002 season.

The Spartans shut down Penn State's ground game in the regular-season finale, limiting the Nittany Lions to 55 yards on 31 rushes (1.8 avg.).

Michigan State held Minnesota, the nation's No. 2 ranked rushing offense, to 148 yards (39 attempts) – 150 yards below its season average. The Spartans also kept the Big Ten's third-leading rusher Marion Barber III in check. Barber managed just 19 yards on 14 rushes – almost 87 yards below his season average.

The Spartans held each of their first three opponents under 100 yards rushing. It marked the first time Michigan State's defense put together that kind of streak since 1999, when the Spartans yielded less than 100 yards rushing in four straight games (Illinois 42 yards, Iowa 7, Michigan 6 and Purdue 59).

The Spartans surrendered 61 yards on 19 carries vs. Louisiana Tech. Michigan State held Rutgers to minus 2 yards rushing (36 attempts). It marked the Spartans' best defensive effort since limiting Purdue to minus 18 yards on 14 rushes on Nov. 7, 1987. In the second half, Rutgers lost 23 yards on 15 carries. In the 2003 season opener vs. Western Michigan, the Spartans permitted only 6 yards rushing on 24 carries.

By contrast, Michigan State ranked ninth in the Big Ten and No. 110 nationally (out of 117) in rushing defense in 2002, permitting 213.8 yards per game. That year, opponents gained 2,566 yards on the ground against the Spartans, the fourth-highest total allowed in school history, and scored 26 rushing TDs.

SPARTANS LEAD THE BIG TEN IN SACKS

Michigan State ranked among the Big Ten (sixth) and NCAA (27th) leaders in rushing defense (124.8 yards allowed per game) in 2003, thanks largely to its relentless pass rush. The Spartans produced a Big Ten-best 45 sacks for 299 yards. It marked the first time since 1999 that the Spartans led the league in sacks (school-record 54 for 381 yards). By comparison, the Spartans finished ninth in the league in sacks in 2002, compiling only 19 (113 yards).

Michigan State ranked fifth in the NCAA in sacks, trailing only Southern Cal (55 for 415), Kansas State (51 for 345), Washington State (50 for 345) and Hawaii (46 for 303).

The Spartans recorded six sacks (36 yards) against Indiana, including three (15 yards) by senior defensive end Greg Taplin.

Michigan State sacked Western Michigan's Chad Munson six times for 45 yards in the 2003 season opener, including four (28 yards) by junior defensive tackle Matthias Askew. He equaled the second-best single-game sack total in Spartan history, falling just one short of the record held by Travis Davis (five for 37 yards vs. Ohio State, 1987).

SMOKER REACHES 3,000-YARD PASSING MILESTONE

Senior Jeff Smoker, a second-team All-Big Ten selection by the coaches and media, led the league in passing (261.2 yards per game) and total offense (252.2 ypg.) in 2003. Smoker, a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award, ranked second in the conference in touchdown passes (21) and fourth in passing efficiency (128.8 rating). His 302 pass completions, 488 pass attempts, 3,395 passing yards and 21 TD passes all represent the top single-season totals in Spartan history. He recorded 10 200-yard passing games in 2003, including six 300-yard performances.

In Big Ten games, he completed 64 percent (214-337) of his throws for 2,307 yards (288.4 ypg.), 15 TDs and six interceptions (better than a 2-to-1 ratio).

The 6-foot-3, 224-pound Smoker became the first quarterback in Michigan State history to reach the 3,000-yard passing milestone in a season, completing 29-of-50 throws for 357 yards and a school-record tying four touchdowns in the Spartans' 41-10 victory over Penn State in the home finale. His 357 passing yards marked the second-best single-game total in his Spartan career. Smoker produced those totals against the nation's No. 2 pass defense that entered the game allowing an average of only 192 passing yards. He delivered scoring tosses of 80 yards to Kyle Brown, 14 yards to Eric Knott, 17 yards to Jerramy Scott and 5 yards to Jason Randall.

Smoker threw for 351 yards and two scores vs. Ohio State. He set Michigan State single-game records for pass attempts (55) and completions (35) against the Buckeyes, breaking marks previously held by John Leister (54 attempts vs. Purdue, 1980; 32 completions vs. Michigan, 1982). Smoker completed passes to 12 different receivers.

Smoker completed 23-of-31 passes for 317 yards and two scores vs. Illinois. His 317 yards marked the best single-game total ever by a Spartan quarterback against Illinois.

He earned Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week honors after completing 32-of-40 throws (.800) for 351 yards and two scores in Michigan State's 31-3 victory over Indiana. Smoker, who completed 17-of-18 attempts during one stretch, also scored on a 2-yard keeper in the fourth quarter.

Smoker completed 28-of-44 throws for 218 yards and two scores to lead Michigan State to a 20-10 victory over No. 13 Iowa in the Big Ten opener. With his 17-yard touchdown strike to Ziehl Kavanaght at the 10:56 mark of the first quarter, Smoker became MSU's career leader with 47 TD passes, breaking the record he previously shared with Bill Burke (1996-99).

Smoker recorded his third win in four career starts vs. Notre Dame, hitting 13-of-27 passes for 119 yards in a 22-16 victory. He became only the second quarterback in college football history to produce three victories over the Fighting Irish, joining Purdue's Mike Phipps (1967-69).

He opened the 2003 season with back-to-back 300-yard passing games vs. Western Michigan (21-of-34 for 324 and three scores) and Rutgers (21-of-32 for 351 and three TDs). In the 2003 season opener, Smoker became MSU's career leader in total offense and passing yards. With his 59-yard TD strike to Brown in the second quarter vs. Western Michigan, he broke the record previously held by Ed Smith, who produced 5,556 total yards from 1976-78. With his 53-yard completion to Alexander on the first play of the fourth quarter against the Broncos, Smoker shattered the passing mark previously held by Dave Yarema, who threw for 5,809 yards from 1982-86.

Smoker ranks as MSU's all-time leader in total offense (8,714 yards), passing yards (8,932), pass completions (685), pass attempts (1,150) and TD passes (61). The Manheim, Pa., native also is listed among MSU's career leaders in completion percentage (sixth at .597). He stands fifth on the Big Ten's all-time passing chart with 8,932 career yards. Smoker, who posted a school-record 23 career 200-yard passing games, compiled a 21-16 record (.568) in 37 career starts. With 21 career wins under his belt, he also ranks as the winningest quarterback in Spartan history.

SMOKER SPREADS THE BALL AROUND

A key to Jeff Smoker's throwing success in 2003 was his ability to utilize all of the weapons at his disposal in Michigan State's spread offense. Seven Spartans had at least 20 receptions, including Agim Shabaj (57 for 692 yards), Jaren Hayes (48 for 414), Aaron Alexander (44 for 522), Eric Knott (31 for 306), Kyle Brown (29 for 481), Matt Trannon (28 for 259) and Jason Randall (21 for 218). Smoker completed touchdown passes to eight different receivers in 2003.

WESTERN MICHIGAN 21
MICHIGAN STATE 26

Aug. 30, 2003 East Lansing, Mich. Spartan Stadium/Att.: 72,923(c)

Jeff Smoker completed 21-of-34 throws for 324 yards and three scores to lead Michigan State to a 26-21 victory over Western Michigan in the 2003 season opener. It marked Michigan State's 10th-straight win over an opponent from the Mid-American Conference. The Spartans jumped out to a 7-0 lead on Smoker's 50-yard touchdown strike to Agim Shabaj with 10:05 left in the first quarter. Willie Pope's interception set up Western Michigan's game-tying score, a 45-yard TD toss from Chad Munson to Greg Jennings with 2:16 remaining in the first quarter. Michigan State regained the lead at 14-7 on Smoker's 59-yard scoring pass to Kyle Brown with 12:32 left in the second quarter. The Broncos answered on their next series as Munson completed 40-yard passes to Tony Scheffler and Phil Reed on back-to-back plays to set up Reed's 2-yard TD run. The Spartans took the lead for good on their next possession as a six-play, 31-yard drive resulted in Dave Rayner's 49-yard field goal. Western Michigan turned the ball over on its next series as Darren Barnett intercepted Munson's pass attempt and returned it 2 yards to the MSU 44. A 43-yard run by Jaren Hayes led to Smoker's third TD pass, a 21-yarder to Shabaj, as the Spartans built a 23-14 halftime lead. Michigan State put together a seven-play, 49-yard drive midway through the third quarter and extended its lead to 26-14 on Rayner's 31-yard field goal. Western Michigan's offense came to life late in the fourth quarter. Munson finished off a 10-play, 68-yard drive with a 12-yard TD pass to Jennings with :30 on the clock as the Broncos pulled to within 26-21. Western Michigan's rally ended when Ziehl Kavanaght recovered the attempted onside kick. Smoker became MSU's career leader in total offense (5,756 yards) and passing yards (5,861). Shabaj set career highs with six catches for 89 yards. Despite running 10 fewer plays from scrimmage, Michigan State outgained Western Michigan in total yards, 421-339.

The Nittany Lions scored on their first possession as a 10-play, 52-yard drive resulted in a 29-yard field goal from Robbie Gould. With 3:14 left in the first quarter, Michigan State took the lead for good at 7-3 on Smoker's 80-yard TD strike to Kyle Brown, who caught a 5-yard pass at the Spartan 25, sidestepped two tacklers and raced down the near sidelines. Tyrell Dortch capped a 10-play, 68-yard drive with a 14-yard TD run off a counter-draw play as the Spartans moved out to a 14-3 lead with 9:39 remaining in the second quarter. Smoker completed seven straight passes for 98 yards during a nine-play scoring drive, including a 14-yard TD toss to Eric Knott with 3:10 left in the first half, as Michigan State built a 21-3 halftime advantage. Drew Stanton's 29-yard run off a fake punt on fourth-and-4 from the MSU 43 set up Smoker's third TD pass, a 17-yarder to Jerramy Scott with 5:27 to play in the third quarter. Michigan State got the ball back three minutes later at the Penn State 46 after Kiel Beltinck partially blocked a punt. Eight plays later, Smoker fired a 5-yard TD pass to Jason Randall in the back of the end zone as the Spartans took a 35-3 lead with 13:27 left in the game. Jason Harmon's 34-yard interception return to the Penn State 6 led to Michigan State's final score, a 1-yard run by Jason Teague with 4:07 on the clock. Penn State's only touchdown came on Michael Robinson's 13-yard scoring pass to Terrance Phillips with 11 seconds left. Michigan State outgained the Nittany Lions in total yards, 476-238.

Jeff Smoker became the first quarterback in Spartan history to reach the 3,000-yard passing milestone in a season, throwing for 357 yards and a school record-tying four TDs vs. Penn State.

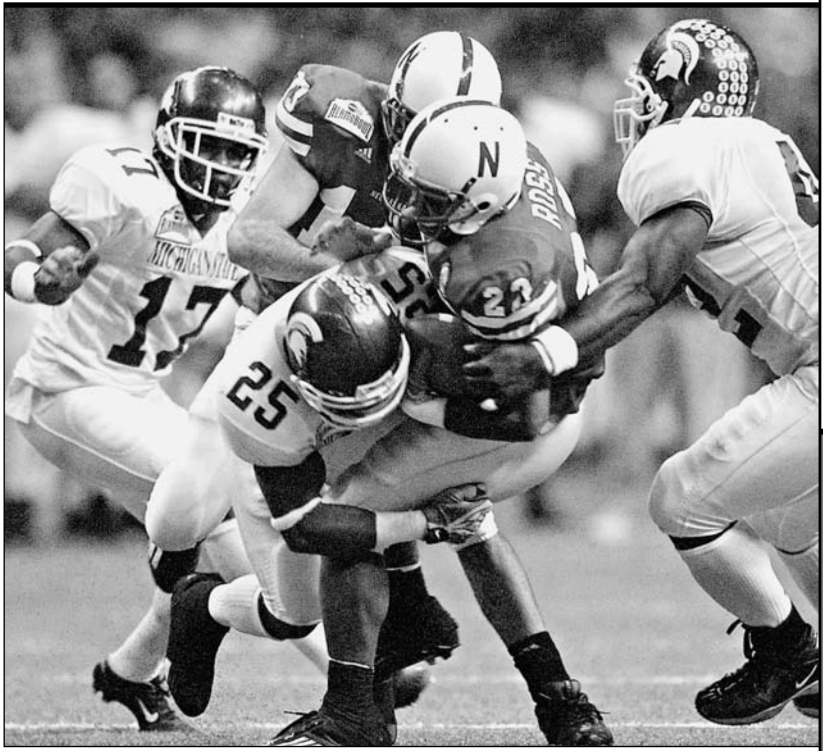
Alamo Bowl vs. Nebraska

MICHIGAN STATE 3
NEBRASKA 17

Dec. 29, 2003 San Antonio, Texas The Alamodome/Att.: 56,226

Cory Ross rushed for a career-high 138 yards and two scores to lead No. 22 Nebraska to a 17-3 victory over Michigan State in the 2003 MasterCard Alamo Bowl. Ross carried the ball seven times for 37 yards on Nebraska's opening drive to set up David Dyches' 29-yard field goal as the Cornhuskers took a 3-0 lead with 8:19 left in the first quarter. Michigan State answered with a 10-play, 48-yard drive, with Jeff Smoker completing five-of-six passes for 43 yards, and pulled even on a 46-yard field goal by Dave Rayner with 3:53 remaining in the first quarter. Jammal Lord's 58-yard completion to Isaiah Fluellen early in the second quarter gave the Cornhuskers first-and-goal at the MSU 6. Two plays later, Ross scored on a 2-yard run as Nebraska jumped out to a 10-3 lead with 13:17 left in the first half. Late in the second quarter, Lord broke free for a 66-yard gain to the MSU 14. Two plays later, Ross raced 6 yards for a touchdown as the Cornhuskers built a 17-3 lead with 3:20 to play in the first half. The Spartan defense bounced back in the second half, allowing only 106 total yards while holding Nebraska scoreless. Michigan State's offense came to life midway through the fourth quarter. Smoker completed five straight passes for 39 yards and Tyrell Dortch gained 16 yards on two running plays as the Spartans marched to the Cornhusker 17. After a personal-foul penalty pushed the Spartans back 15 yards, Pat Ricketts ended the scoring threat when he picked off Smoker's throw intended for Aaron Alexander at the Nebraska 24. The Cornhuskers limited Michigan State to a season-low 174 total yards – nearly 210 yards below its season average. Nebraska sacked Smoker five times for 37 yards and forced three interceptions.



Jason Harmon dropped Nebraska's Cory Ross for a 3-yard loss in the third quarter.

JOHN F. MACKLIN
1911-15

MSU Record: 29-5-0

An outstanding athlete at Pennsylvania, John Macklin succeeded Chester Brewer as Aggie coach. He was said to have stood about 6-5 and weighed around 250 pounds. Macklin won more than 85 percent of his games at MAC, compiling 29 victories in 34 contests. Among his greatest accomplishments were a 35-20 win over Ohio State in 1912, the first achieved by MAC over a Big Ten team; the school's first victory over Michigan, 12-7, in 1913; a 6-3 upset win against Penn State in 1914; and a 24-0 shutout of Michigan in 1915. Macklin died in 1949 at the age of 65.

FRANK SOMMERS

GEORGE E. GAUTHIER
1918

MSU Record: 4-3-0

The first Michigan State alumnus to direct an Aggie team was George Gauthier, a quarterback under John Macklin in 1912 and '13. Though the record was only 4-3, his 1918 club produced one of the most astounding upsets in Aggie history defeating Knute Rockne's first Notre Dame team which starred a sophomore back named George Gipp. A year after leaving MAC, Gauthier assumed duties as athletic director and head coach at Ohio Wesleyan, a dual position he held for 34 years. He died in 1964 at the age of 74.

GEORGE "POTSY" CLARK

MSU Record: 4-6-0

George "Potsy" Clark, an All-America quarterback under the legendary Bob Zuppke at Illinois, served as MAC's coach for only one season. The Aggies had a losing record, but one of those victories was a record 109-0 rout of Olivet. Among his other stops in college coaching were at Minnesota and Butler. He also served as athletic director at Nebraska, 1945-1953. Clark is probably best known as head coach of the Detroit Lions which won the 1935 NFL title. He died in 1972 at the age of 78.

RALPH YOUNG 1923-27

MSU Record: 18-22-1

An outstanding player for both Fielding Yost at Michigan and Amos Alonzo Stagg at Chicago, the roly-poly Ralph Young coached MAC and MSC with only moderate success. However, he brought stability to a program that badly needed it, laying the foundation on which the school's athletic structure grew. MAC nearly surprised powerful Michigan in its stadium dedication game of 1924, losing 7-0. Young, who also was a fine track and field coach, is best known for his success as State's athletic director, 1923-54. He died in 1962 at the age of 72.

HARRY KIPKE 1928

MSU Record: 3-4-1

Michigan football All-American Harry Kipke directed the Spartans for only one season. A Lansing (Mich.) High School graduate, he began his coaching career with a 103-0 victory over Kalamazoo College, but highlights after that were few and far between. Kipke nearly directed State to an upset victory over his alma mater, and that performance probably enticed Michigan to hire him as its coach the very next season. He died in 1972 at the age of 73.

JIM CROWLEY 1929-32

MSU Record: 22-8-3

Jim Crowley, one of Notre Dame's immortal Four Horsemen, joined Michigan State's staff as its head football coach in 1929. His arrival became the catalyst which transformed a mediocre program into a nationally-respected major power for the first time since the coaching era of John Macklin. "Sleepy Jim" produced four-straight winning seasons for the Spartans. A pair of 0-0 ties against Michigan in 1930 and '31 broke State's 14-game losing streak to the Wolverines, a span which saw UM outscore MSC by a total of 392-9. A night game loss at Georgetown spoiled the Spartans' otherwise undefeated season in 1930. He was named head coach at Fordham in 1933, becoming the architect of the "Seven Blocks of Granite." Crowley died in 1986 at the age of 83.

Charles Bachman
1933-46

MSU Record: 70-34-10

Charlie Bachman, another Notre Dame alumnus, succeeded Jim Crowley as head football coach at Michigan State, coming to East Lansing after a successful stint at Florida. A teammate of Knute Rockne, Bachman employed the Notre Dame system and forged 10 winning seasons in 13 years. During his second season with the Spartans in 1934, he led State to an 8-1 record, which included a 16-0 victory over Michigan, the school's first since 1915. That marked the first of four-straight wins over UM. MSC posted another 8-1 regular-season record in 1937 and received the school's first bid to a postseason bowl game, the 1938 Orange Bowl. Among Bachman's greatest Spartan players were guard Sid Wagner, State's first All-American since 1915, halfback John Pingel and fullback Jack Breslin. Bachman died in 1985 at the age of 93.

CLARENCE "BIGGIE" MUNN
1947-53

MSU Record: 54-9-2

The most successful Spartan coach of all-time in terms of winning percentage was former Minnesota All-American Clarence "Biggie" Munn. He came to MSC directly from Syracuse where he served only for one season. Despite an inauspicious 55-0 drubbing from Michigan in his Spartan debut, Munn turned things around quickly, ending that 1947 campaign with a 7-2 record. Workman-like progress continued the next two seasons, but then the Spartans exploded onto the national scene in 1950 with an 8-1 mark, a record which included victories over excellent Notre Dame and Michigan clubs. That year's eighth-place national ranking was improved to second in 1951, a year which saw State go 9-0, its first unbeaten-untied record since 1913. MSC reached the pinnacle in 1952, claiming the mythical national championship with a second-straight 9-0 record. For that performance, Munn was named college football's Coach of the Year. Success continued in 1953, the Spartans' first campaign as a member of the Big Ten Conference, running their winning streak to 28 in a row, before falling, 6-0, at Purdue. State went on to post five wins after that, including a win over UCLA in the 1954 Rose Bowl. During Munn's seven seasons at MSC, he produced 17 different All-Americans, headlined by the great two-way tackle Don Coleman. Biggie was voted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1959. About a week after State's Rose Bowl victory, Munn stepped down from coaching to assume duties as MSC's athletic director. He served in that capacity for 18 years, building the Spartans into a nationally-prominent program. A stroke in 1971 forced him to retire from Michigan State. Munn died four years later in 1975 at the age of 66.

HUGH DUFFY DAUGHERTY
1954-72

MSU Record: 109-69-5

One of the most popular coaches in the history of college football was Michigan State's personable Duffy Daugherty. An undergraduate star for Syracuse, he was a member of Biggie Munn's staff there in 1946 when State hired Munn. Daugherty served initially as line coach at MSU, tutoring such Spartan standouts as Don Coleman and Frank Kush. Then, following State's 1954 Rose Bowl victory over UCLA, Munn stepped in as athletic director and named Duffy as head coach. Daugherty's '55 club went 9-1 and received the Big Ten's Rose Bowl bid, defeating UCLA, 17-14. His greatest teams, though, came in 1965 and '66 when those two star-studded squads posted a cumulative record of 19-1-1 and two Big Ten championships. The only loss was a 14-12 defeat at the hands of UCLA in the 1966 Rose Bowl and the lone tie was the monumental 10-10 "Game of the Century" vs. Notre Dame in '66. Duffy's 1965 Spartans were a defensive juggernaut and won the No. 1 ranking in the final UPI poll. During Duffy's 19 seasons at MSU, 29 different players earned first-team All-America honors. The list included such stars as Earl Morrall, Sherman Lewis, George Webster, Clinton Jones, Gene Washington, Bubba Smith, Brad Van Pelt and Billy Joe DuPree. Daugherty's individual honors included National Coach of the Year laurels in both 1955 and '65, and induction into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1984. Duffy died in 1987 at the age of 72, in Santa Barbara, Calif.

DENNIS E. STOLZ
1973-75

MSU Record: 19-13-1

Denny Stolz, defensive coordinator under Duffy Daugherty, was the 16th man to direct Spartan football fortunes. The graduate and former head coach at Alma College started off slowly at MSU, but soon built the Spartans into a Big Ten challenger. Stolz' second club finished a half-game behind Michigan and Ohio State in the 1974 Big Ten standings, earning him conference Coach of the Year honors. The highlight that year was an unforgettable upset victory over the top-ranked Buckeyes at Spartan Stadium. His final MSU team tied for third in the conference standings with the major accomplishment an upset victory at Notre Dame. Stolz left MSU following the 1975 season. He coached at Bowling Green State, 1977-85, and then served as head coach at San Diego State, 1986-88.

DARRYL D. ROGERS

MSU Record: 24-18-2

Darryl Rogers joined the Spartan football staff following stints at Hayward State and San Jose State in California. Like the two men who preceeded him at Michigan State, Rogers' first team struggled a bit, but he bounced back big in season number two. The Spartans, who set a conference record for offensive proficiency, finished a half-game behind Michigan and Ohio State with a 6-1-1 Big Ten record. In 1978, MSU shared the Big Ten title with the Wolverines, earning Rogers Big Ten Coach of the Year honors. NCAA probation prohibited State from going to the Rose Bowl. Following the 1979 season, he left MSU for the head coaching position at Arizona State, 1980-84. Following his stint with the Sun Devils, Rogers signed as head coach of the Detroit Lions, 1985-88. During the 1991 season, he served as the head coach of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League. He served as the athletic director at Southern Connecticut State for 10 years, retiring in 2003.

FRANK “MUDDY” WATERS
1980-82

MSU Record: 10-23-0

Frank “Muddy” Waters became only the second former Michigan State player to coach the Spartans. The personable coach was named head man at MSU one day before his 57th birthday, following a highly successful career at Hillsdale College and Saginaw Valley State. Waters compiled a 138-46-5 record in 20 seasons at Hillsdale (1954-73) and a 25-26-2 mark in five years at Saginaw Valley (1975-79), while building the program from scratch. Three Spartans — Ray Stachowicz, Morten Andersen and James Burroughs — won All-America honors during Muddy’s tenure at MSU. Thanks to his contributions to small college football in Michigan, Waters was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000. He and his wife, Mary Lou, currently reside in East Lansing.

GEORGE J. PERLES

MSU Record: 68-67-4

Former Spartan gridder and assistant coach George Perles saw his dream of becoming head coach of the MSU football program come true when he was named to the position on Dec. 3, 1982. After posting just 10 wins in three seasons prior to his arrival, Perles helped return MSU to national prominence with two bowl appearances in his first three seasons. In 1987, Perles and the Spartans captured the Big Ten title and made the program’s first Rose Bowl appearance since 1966. The Spartans topped USC, 20-17, ending the year at 9-2-1, the most victories by an MSU squad since 1966, along with a No. 8 national ranking. His efforts that season earned him Football News’ Coach of the Year honors. The Rose Bowl began a string of four-straight bowl appearances which included triumphs in the 1989 Aloha and ’90 John Hancock Bowls. The architect of the dominating Pittsburgh Steelers’ defense during the Super Bowl years (1974-75-78-79), 50 of his players were selected in the NFL Draft, including nine first-rounders. He guided the Spartans to a Big Ten slate of 53-42-3, and to seven bowl games. (Career record reflects five 1994 wins forfeited by MSU as part of 1996 self-imposed sanctions.)

NICK L. SABAN

MSU Record: 34-24-1

Nick Saban became the 20th head football coach in MSU history on Dec. 3, 1994, following a highly successful NFL stint with the Cleveland Browns. As the Browns' defensive coordinator, he led the NFL's stingiest scoring defense in 1994 as that unit allowed the sixth-fewest points in league history. His winning ways continued at Michigan State, as he promptly became the first Spartan coach to lead his teams to bowl games in each of his first three seasons, including the 1995 Independence, '96 Sun and '97 Aloha Bowls. The Spartans returned to national prominence in 1999, going 9-2, and earning a trip to the 2000 Florida Citrus Bowl. Prior to the bowl game, Saban left to take the head coaching job at LSU. Saban previously coached at MSU, serving as an assistant coach from 1983-87, helping the Spartans to the 1987 Big Ten and '88 Rose Bowl championships.

1999-2002

MSU Record: 16-17

Bobby Williams became the 21st head coach in Spartan history when he assumed control of the team on Dec. 5, 1999, after Nick Saban left for LSU. Prior to taking over as head coach, Williams coached Michigan State's running backs for 10 years. He made his head-coaching debut on Jan. 1, 2000, and led the Spartans to a last-second victory over No. 10 Florida, 37-34, in the Florida Citrus Bowl. With MSU's 44-35 triumph over No. 20 Fresno State in the 2001 Silicon Valley Football Classic, Williams became the first head coach in Spartan football history to win his first two bowl games. He was dismissed as head coach after nine games of the 2002 season.

MORRIS WATTS

MSU Record: 1-2

Michigan State veteran offensive coordinator Morris Watts served as interim head coach for the final three games of the 2002 season. Watts made his head-coaching debut on Nov. 9, 2002, and led the Spartans to a 56-21 victory at Indiana, snapping a four-game losing streak. He became the 11th head coach in school history to produce a win in his Spartan debut. Watts enjoyed three stints as MSU's offensive coordinator, holding that position for a total of 12 seasons (1986-90, 1992-94 and 1999-2002). He returned to Michigan State in 1999 following a four-year tenure as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Louisiana State (1995-98).

John L. Smith became Michigan State University's 23rd head football coach on Dec. 19, 2002. Smith, who inherited a team that went 4-8 in 2002, produced an 8-4 regular-season record in 2003 and earned Dave McClain (Big Ten) Coach of the Year honors. His eight wins marked the most by a first-year coach in Spartan history. Smith came to Michigan State following five seasons at Louisville (1998-2002) where he put together a 41-21 worksheet (.661), including five straight bowl appearances and back-to-back C-USA titles in 2000-01. He posted a 16-18 ledger (.471) in three seasons at Utah State (1995-97) while leading the Aggies to consecutive Big West Conference crowns in 1996-97. His six-year mark of 53-21 (.716) at Idaho (1989-94) included five NCAA I-AA playoff appearances and five Top 20 finishes. Twelve of his 15 teams have participated in postseason play, including seven straight bowl appearances.

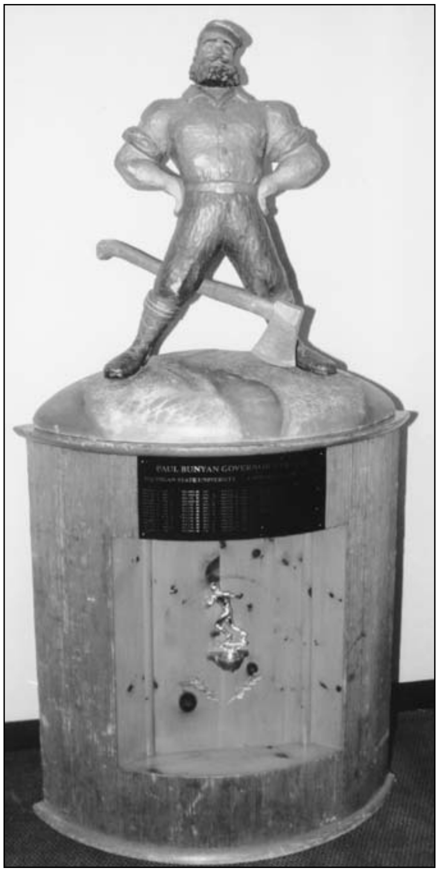
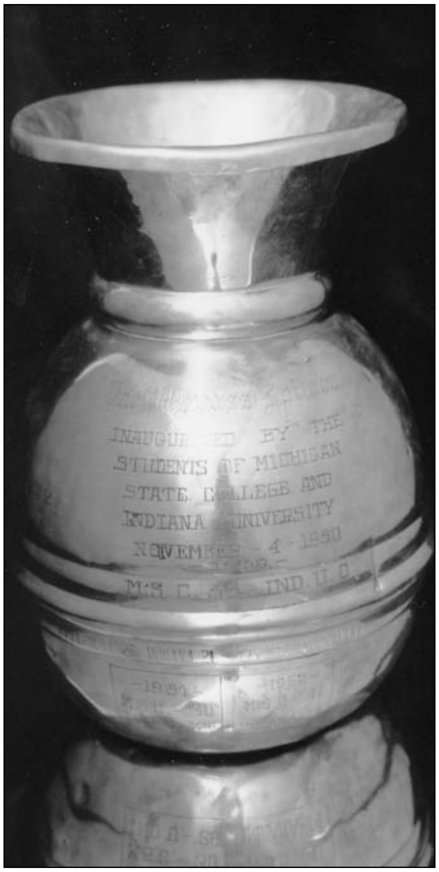
PAUL BUNYAN TROPHY

Since 1953, the winner of the Michigan State-Michigan game has been presented the Paul Bunyan Trophy. The four-foot wooden statue was donated by then-Governor G. Mennen Williams to mark Michigan State's acceptance into the Big Ten. Since '53, Michigan leads the series 30-19-2. The trophy depicts the legendary giant lumberjack astride an axe with feet planted on a map of the state with flags representing the schools.



OLD BRASS SPITTOON

Since 1950, the winner of the Michigan State-Indiana game has been presented the Old Brass Spittoon. The trophy was initiated by the junior and senior classes and the MSU student council at Michigan State, and soon accepted by the IU Student Senate. The brass spittoon came from one of Michigan's earliest trading posts and is widely believed to be nearly 150 years old. Legend has it that the spittoon was around when both institutions were founded Indiana in 1820 and MAC in 1855. Since '50, Michigan State leads the series 36-11-1.



MEGAPHONE TROPHY

Since 1949, the winner of the Michigan State-Notre Dame game has been presented the Megaphone Trophy, sponsored jointly by the Detroit alumni clubs of both schools. The megaphone is printed half blue, with a gold ND monogram, and half white, with a green MSC. All previous game scores are listed on the trophy. Michigan State and Notre Dame played 36 consecutive seasons from 1959-94 until the recent two-year interruption of the series (1995-96). The current series contract runs through the 2011 season.

LAND-GRANT TROPHY

Since the renewal of the series in 1993, the winner of the Michigan State-Penn State game has been presented the Land-Grant Trophy. The trophy honors the two universities' unique places in history as the two pioneer land-grant schools in the nation. Each institution was founded in 1855, Michigan State on Feb. 12 and Penn State on Feb. 22. The schools were the prototypes after which the land-grant system was patterned. The trophy features pictures of campus landmarks, Michigan State's Beaumont Tower and Penn State's Old Main, plus replicas of the Spartan and Nittany Lion. Since 1993, Penn State leads the series 8-3.

Biggie Munn

- MSU Record: 54-9-2, 1947-53
- 28-Game Winning Streak, 1950-53
- Coach of the Year, 1952
- College Football Hall of Fame, 1959

Biggie Munn was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1959, just six years after he had moved out of football to become athletics director at Michigan State. This quick recognition was an eloquent tribute to the impact Biggie had made on the national collegiate scene during seven meteoric years at the Spartan helm from 1947-53.

His MSU record of 54 wins, 9 losses and 2 ties is remarkable. Included in the reign were two national championships, a 28-game winning streak, and a Big Ten co-championship in the only year under Munn that the team competed in the conference, the 1954 Rose Bowl bid and subsequent victory over UCLA. Eighteen of Munn's players achieved first-team All-America status from one or more organizations. Biggie himself was named Coach of the Year after his 1952 team won the national title according to the wire services.

Thousands of words have been written in newspapers, magazines and books about this glamorous Munn era at MSU.

It coincided with the greatest growth period in the history of the school and clearly played a salient role in its transformation from a medium-sized, relatively undistinguished land-grant college to a huge university with impressive national prestige. Admission to the Big Ten, primarily an athletic association with emphasis on football, was a key event in this metamorphosis.

As to the physical size of athletes, Biggie relegated it to low priority when he said: “Sacrifice everything for speed and quickness. They are the keys to success in modern football.”

Following that dictum, Biggie's greatest players included a pair of 190-pound guards, Don Mason and Ed Bagdon, whom Fritz Crisler called the finest pair of guards ever to play in Michigan Stadium. Then there was an incredible 180-pound tackle named Don Coleman, now in the College Football Hall of Fame, the light brigade backfield of Tom Yewcic (175), LeRoy Bolden (163), Evan Slonac (170) and Billy Wells (175), and a 185-pound guard named Frank Kush.

The biggest man in the starting offensive lineup for the 1952 national championship team was center Jim Neal at 215.

Munn's multiple offense was the marvel of its day. Its complexity and versatility produced such commentaries as that of a Portland, Ore., editor who wrote after seeing a Munn team in action: “I don't see how a college team can be taught so much offense. Even the pros don't do it.”

But all the foregoing is, too many people who knew Munn well, relatively superficial. The heart of his greatness, they will argue, lies in the personality and character of the man himself.

Who would understand this better than his athletes, and here are assessments from several of his stars:

Don Dohoney, 1953 All-America end: “Biggie's greatest asset was his ability to organize. The men he hired all knew their jobs and what was expected of them. Biggie was able to impart the ‘winning philosophy,’ and we never forgot it. Biggie was a man beyond comparison.”Don Mason, All-America guard in 1949 and later a Spartan assistant coach under Munn: “I think the thing which above all others made Biggie a super coach was his complete year-round absorption in the progress of the football team and his belief that the team and each individual on it could reach a potential not yet realized. Football was as important to him in June as it was in October.”

George Guerre, Biggie's first great running back at MSU: “I think his greatest asset was his ability to get 100 percent out of his players. He was a great motivator. Along with this, he was able to analyze the special talents of his players and develop a system ‘for’ his players instead of trying to make his players fit into a system for which they had no talent. Thus, the multiple offense came into being.”

Don Coleman, All-America guard in 1951 and generally considered the finest lineman in MSU history: “He had the ability to motivate his players and coaches. He demonstrated a genuine faith and concern for people in general. He brought out the best in each member of the team and taught us to draw upon our inner strengths to achieve success. On every play, whether in practice or in a game — also in life — Biggie gave and expected from others a 100-percent effort.”

There is uniformity in these appraisals which seem to zero in on one supreme talent. It is that Munn was a master of communication. In modern idiom, he made it abundantly clear to players, assistant coaches, professional athletes, “exactly where he was coming from.” That seems to be the dominant hallmark of this extraordinary man.

Duffy Daugherty

- MSU Record: 109-69-5, 1954-72
- 19-1-1 combined in 1965-66
- Coach of the Year, 1955, 1965
- College Football Hall of Fame, 1984

Legends usually are rooted in solid fact, but passage of time and tricky memory eventually make them bigger than life.

So it surely has been with Duffy Daugherty. Ever since his departure in 1972 as head coach, fans have had trouble sorting out the truth from the sentimental hyperbole about the man and his career.

In such circumstances, the course of reason is to go back to the record. For Duffy, it speaks as loudly and eloquently as the most extravagant alumni bull session tales possibly could in 2000.

Some of the diamond-hard and shining facts are:

- He worked his way from a Pennsylvania coal mine to the pinnacle of national fame as a coach, a wit, a beloved personality and a public relations ambassador for his school, which happily was Michigan State.
- He suffered a broken neck playing college football at Syracuse, but came back to captain his team as a senior.
- He went into military service in World War II as a private and came out a major.
- He devoted eight years, one at Syracuse and seven at MSU, as a lightly regarded assistant to head coach Biggie Munn, despite the fact he coached some lines that became known as "Duffy's Toughies."
- He took over the seemingly thankless chore of succeeding Munn as State's head coach, and not only didn't fumble the ball but carried it into new end zones.
- He brought four national championships to Michigan State (1955, '57, '65 and '66). He won two outright Big Ten titles and placed second four times. Seven times his teams finished in the national Top 10 in wire service balloting.
- He developed 33 major first-team All-Americans and 51 first-team All-Big Ten players.

Must games for State always are those with Michigan and Notre Dame, and Duffy came out 10-7-2 with the Wolverines and 10-7-1 with the Irish. Notre Dame thought so much of him that he had first shot at the head coaching job there but elected to stay at State, thereby opening the door for Ara Parseghian. Along the way, there were countless other big head coaching positions tossed into his lap.

He battled the serious business attitude of many of the people associated with the game and sought to make football fun for players and coaches, as well as fans. As an exemplar of this philosophy, he became known for his "Duffyisms," spontaneous witticisms that had the whole nation chuckling.

He was the first man ever to be named Coach of the Year twice by the Football Writers of America. He coached in 11 all-star bowl games, winning a majority of them. He wrote a column for the Associated Press for three years.

Duffyisms, those memorable witticisms that flowed so easily from Duffy's mouth, are at the heart of the legend. Many career details may be forgotten, but not the Duffyisms. They are not only amusing, they also reveal such characteristics of the man as his humbleness, sincerity, kindness, loyalty, love of people and lively imagination. Here is a sampling:

Commenting on the triple-option play his Michigan State team used in the 1969 season: "It's really a quadruple option the way we do it. We hand the ball off, pitch it out, pass it or maybe we just let it lie there on the ground where we dropped it."

Duffy said All-America quarterback Dean Look (1959) once deserted his interference and carried the ball for a long gainer against Notre Dame. "I really bawled him out," Duffy said. "We don't have a play like that,' I told him. 'Coach,' Dean said, 'we ought to get one.'"

On talking about Biggie Munn's selection to the College Football Hall of Fame: "You can credit me for getting Biggie in the Hall of Fame. After six years of my coaching, they appreciate what a great coach he really was."

The Michigan State defense one year stopped both Notre Dame and Indiana inches short of touchdowns. Duffy said: "I like those goal-line stands of ours but I wish they'd make them up around the 50-yard line where I can see them better."

"The week of the Wisconsin game I worked hard on Walt Kowalczyk to quit that kid stuff on shifting the ball from one arm to another and trying to straight-arm people," said Duffy. "'That's for high school players,' I told him. 'Hang on to the ball!' So against Wisconsin Walt ran 72 yards for a touchdown and on the run shifted the ball three times and knocked loose three or four tacklers with the prettiest straight-arms I've ever seen. It just shows what great coaching can do for a kid."

Duffy listened at a banquet to a standing ovation given to Dr. John Wilson, former Spartan football star who became a Rhodes Scholar. "I just want to say," said Duffy when called on for some remarks, "that I could have been a Rhodes Scholar, too, except for my grades."

His assessment of the talent he had returning one year: "We're small, but we're slow."

"Football is not a contact sport," he said. "It's a collision sport. Dancing is a good idea of a contact sport."

Daugherty once apologized to a group of sports writers for being late to a luncheon with this excuse: "The one place I'm never late to is practice. It doesn't start until I get there."

On MSU's triple option: "The object is to bypass the defensive tackle and end in the flow of the play without blocking them. That's easy for us. We never blocked them anyhow."

His favorite line during the banquet season after the '67 Spartans bombed with a 3-7 record. "We won three games, lost none and were upset in seven."

Duffy was asked by a reporter at the start of a season: "Whom are you happiest to see returning this year?" Without hesitation he replied: "Me."

Said Duffy as he knocked over a cup of coffee on a table full of play diagrams during a staff meeting. "Well, we've got to learn to play on a wet field anyway."

"Sherman Lewis," said Duffy, "is a great football player with one weakness — he's a senior."

Those gems and many others like them portray the man better than someone else's words ever could.

BIGGIE AND DUFFIE: THE FOUNDING FATHERS

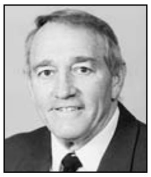
In addition to the contemporaries with Spartan lineage, the names that have dotted MSU coaching staffs throughout history read like a Who's Who of collegiate football. Beginning with Biggie Munn (1947-53) and continuing with Duffy Daugherty (1954-72), a Munn assistant from 1947-53, Michigan State began turning out quality coaches with amazing success. Among those who worked or played for the two Spartan coaching legends are:

LOU AGASE

A member of Daugherty's staff from 1955-59, Agase became head coach of the CFL's Toronto Argonauts.

DANNY BOISTURE

A Spartan assistant from 1959-66, Boisture later enjoyed head coaching posts for Eastern Michigan (1967-73) and the World Football League's Detroit Wheels (1974).



HANK BULLOUGH

An MSU assistant from 1959-69, Bullough joined the pro coaching ranks in 1970 with the Baltimore Colts. He was defensive coordinator with New England, Cincinnati, Buffalo and Green Bay, and spent time as the head coach at Buffalo. After spending the 1993 season as defensive coordinator with the Detroit Lions, he returned to his alma mater for one season, 1994, in the same capacity.

VINCE CARILLOT

After working with MSU from 1960-68, Carillot moved on to the head coaching job at Tulsa in 1969.

BOB DEVANEY

An MSU assistant coach from 1954-56, Devaney spent one year as head coach at Wyoming before launching Nebraska's program to national prominence from 1962-72. His teams won a pair of national titles, and he later became Nebraska's athletic director.

DAN DEVINE

MSU's backfield coach in 1954, Devine moved on to a storied coaching career. Devine turned out successful programs at Arizona State and Missouri, won a divisional title with the Green Bay Packers, and then went to Notre Dame where his Fighting Irish won the national title in 1977.

AL DOROW

A Spartan staff member from 1965-70, Dorow served as head coach of the CFL's Hamilton Tigercats.

EARLE EDWARDS

Assisting Biggie Munn from 1949-53, Edwards went on to become head coach at N.C. State (1954-70).

FOREST EVASHEVSKI

Forest served under Biggie Munn from 1947-49, and later became head coach at Iowa (1952-60).

CHUCK FAIRBANKS

An MSU letterwinner in 1954, Fairbanks began his coaching career under former Spartan Frank Kush at Arizona State. GENE WASHINGTON #84

WR / 6-3 / 218

LaPorte, TX

Gene Washington was an All-America pick as a junior in 1965 by the Football News, Football Digest and Central Press. As a senior, he garnered All-America status as picked by The Sporting News, UPI, and American Football Coaches Association. In '65, he established school seasonal marks in receptions (40) and receiving yards (638) in aiding the Green and White to a 10-1 record and a No. 1 national ranking by UPI. In '66, he paced the Spartans in receiving for the third-straight year with 27 catches for 677 yards, bettering the school seasonal standard he set the previous campaign. He was on the receiving end of seven TD tosses, and his 25.0 yards per catch average from that year still stands as the school's seasonal record. He closed out his career No. 1 on the school's all-time list for receptions (102), receiving yards (1,857) and TD receptions (16). A first-round draft pick of the Minnesota Vikings in 1967, he was a two-time All-Pro selection. In 1996, he was selected to MSU's Centennial Super Squad.

GEORGE WEBSTER #90

ROV / 6-4 / 218

Anderson, SC

George Webster earned All-America acclaim his junior (1965) and senior (1966) years by the Associated Press, United Press, American Football Coaches Association, Football News, the Newspaper Enterprise Association and New York News while being named to the Football Writers, The Sporting News and Central Press teams his senior year. Webster revolutionized the position of roverback and helped MSU to a No. 1 ranking in the Big Ten in total defense in 1965 (No. 2 nationally, 169.9 ypg.) and 1966. As a senior, he posted 93 tackles, including 10 tackles for losses, and helped MSU rank No. 3 nationally in rushing defense. The Spartans' MVP in '66, he became just the second MSU gridder to have his jersey retired (No. 90). Drafted in the first round by the Houston Oilers in 1967, he played 10 years in the pro ranks. He was named MSU's Greatest Player in a vote taken by Spartan fans in 1969. In 1996, he was chosen as a member of MSU's Centennial Super Squad.

JERRY WEST #77

OT / 5-11 / 218

Durand, MI

A key member of the legendary 1966 Spartan football team, Jerry West claimed All-America honors his senior year as picked by the Newspaper Enterprise Association. In Big Ten outings, West's solid blocking enabled the Green and White to pace the conference in both rushing (223.2 ypg.) and in scoring (30.4 ppg.). One of the many fine performances for the 5-foot-11, 218-pounder that year came on a sloppy Ohio Stadium field when his pass protection skills helped QB Jimmy Raye pass for 68 yards during an 83-yard winning TD drive in an 11-8 win over the Buckeyes.

LORENZO WHITE #34

TB / 5-11 / 204

Fort Lauderdale, FL

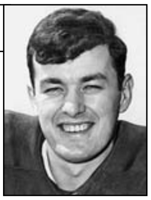
Lorenzo White captured All-America honors as a sophomore in 1985 as chosen by the Associated Press, United Press, Football Writers, The Sporting News, American Football Coaches and the Walter Camp Foundation. As a senior in 1987, seven different agencies tabbed him as an All-American including Kodak, United Press, Football Writers, the Walter Camp Foundation and Football News. In 1985, he finished fourth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy after rushing for a school and Big Ten seasonal record 2,066 yards. His 1,908 yards during the regular season at the time was the fourth-best single-season rushing total in the history of college football and the highest by a sophomore. He rushed for 200 or more yards on four occasions including a 286-yard effort vs. Indiana. During the '87 season, White helped MSU to its first Rose Bowl since 1966 by rushing for 1,572 yards. His 132.6 rushing yards per game during the regular season ranked him No. 6 nationally. He rushed for 100-plus yards on seven occasions and established a school record for attempts in a game with 56 vs. Indiana while finishing that contest with a personal-best 292 yards. In his career, he posted 23 games of 100-plus yards on the ground and finished with school records in rushing yardage (4,887, then No. 2 in the history of Big Ten) and attempts with 1,082. In 1996, he was named to the MSU Centennial Super Squad.

SAM WILLIAMS #88

E / 6-5 / 255

Dansville, MI

Sam Williams was an All-American as a senior in 1958 as picked by UPI, Time Magazine, Football Coaches Association, and the New York News. After dropping out of MSU and serving a four-year stint with the Navy, Williams emerged as a threat both offensively and defensively. A workhorse who averaged nearly 50 minutes per game, he caught a team-high 15 passes for 242 yards while wreaking havoc as a defensive end. A two-time first-team All-Big Ten pick, he served as the Spartan captain of the '58 squad. He was credited with 13 solo stops against Michigan while Illinois and Purdue ran nearly all their sweep plays to the opposite side of the field. Drafted before he even participated in college (L.A. Rams in 1955), he played one season for the Rams before joining the Detroit Lions, where he played until 1966.



TOM YEWCIC #41

QB / 5-11 / 180

Conemaugh, PA

Tom Yewcic, the leader of the Spartan offense during their 9-0 season, gained All-America status as a junior in 1952 as selected by NBC-TV. He completed 41-of-95 passes for 941 yards, then a school seasonal record, and 10 TDs. In his first game as starting quarterback, he drew acclaim after completing seven-of-14 passes for 171 yards in sparking a come-from-behind 27-13 win over Michigan. He became just the second Spartan QB to reach the 200-yard plateau in passing when he passed for 202 yards against Texas A&M. The owner of 17 career TD passes and 1,480 passing yards. He signed a pro baseball contract before entering the pro football ranks with Toronto of the CFL before joining the Boston Patriots, 1961-66.

RETIRED JERSEY NUMBERS

Only three jersey numbers have been retired in the 105-year history of Michigan State football – No. 78 worn by All-America tackle Don Coleman, No. 90 worn by All-America roverback George Webster and No. 46 in honor of former MSU President John Hannah.

Spartan head coach Biggie Munn (1947-53) pulled Coleman's No. 78 out of circulation in 1952. Munn called Coleman, a consensus All-American in 1951, "the finest lineman ever to play for Michigan State." Coleman was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1975.

Webster, a two-time All-American, had his No. 90 retired by head coach Duffy Daugherty in 1967. "George Webster is not only the finest football player I've ever seen but he symbolizes our great 1965 and '66 teams." Webster was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1987.

Daugherty retired the No. 46 in 1969 as a tribute to Dr. Hannah, who stepped down after 46 years of service to the University including 28 years as its president (1941-69). Hannah championed Michigan State's acceptance into the Big Ten Conference in 1949. Former Spartan head coach and athletics director George Perles said, "John Hannah is the greatest legend in the history of Michigan State. He is the person who made MSU the great school it is today."

1938 Orange Bowl

JAN. 1, 1938 / MIAMI, FLA.

The fourth annual Orange Bowl game wasn't nearly as close as the final score might indicate as Auburn dominated play on both sides of the football in recording a shutout victory, 6-0, over Michigan State. It still ranks as the lowest-scoring game in Orange Bowl history. Auburn wasted two scoring opportunities in the first quarter. Jimmy Fenton's 25-yard run gave the Tigers a first-and-10 at the MSU 12 but the Spartan defense responded by stuffing three-straight running plays and Lyle Rockenbach broke up Fenton's fourth-down pass. Tom McShannock's interception and 29-yard return ended Auburn's second scoring threat. The game's only touchdown came in the second quarter and it was set up by George Kenmore's 28-yard pass to Ralph O'Gwynne to the MSU 2. Auburn fullback Pel Sitz netted only 1 yard on three carries before O'Gwynne scored on a 1-yard run around left end on fourth-and-goal. The Tigers had several chances in the second half to break the game open. Auburn turned the ball over on downs at the MSU 16 in the third quarter after Dutch Heath's 12-yard interception return to the MSU 24. Michigan State failed to record a first down until late in the third quarter when Ed Pearce broke a 29-yard run. Auburn drove inside the MSU 30 twice in the fourth quarter but failed to put points on the scoreboard. The Spartans' only other first down came on a 23-yard pass from John Pingel to Usif Haney midway through the fourth quarter. Auburn outgained Michigan State, 278-67, total yards. Fenton and Speck Kelly combined for 137 of the Tigers' 197 rushing yards, gaining 76 and 61 yards, respectively. Auburn held Pingel, MSU's All-America halfback, to 12 yards rushing on seven carries. A sellout crowd of nearly 19,000 attended the game at Miami's brand-new $360,000 Roddy Burdine Stadium.

Wells capped a 10-play, 73-yard drive with a 2-yard TD run to give the Spartans their first lead at 21-14 late in the third quarter. Early in the fourth quarter, UCLA forced another fumble and Jack Ellena recovered it at the MSU 24. Two plays later, Cameron hit Rommie Loudd with a 28-yard TD toss but Cameron's conversion attempt sailed wide and the Bruins still trailed 21-20. Michigan State iced the game when Wells returned Cameron's punt 62 yards for a touchdown with 4:51 left in the fourth quarter. Wells led a well-balanced Spartan running attack, picking up 80 yards on 14 carries.

Ellis Duckett blocked UCLA punter Paul Cameron's attempt in the second quarter and returned it 6 yards for a touchdown to put the Spartans on the scoreboard.

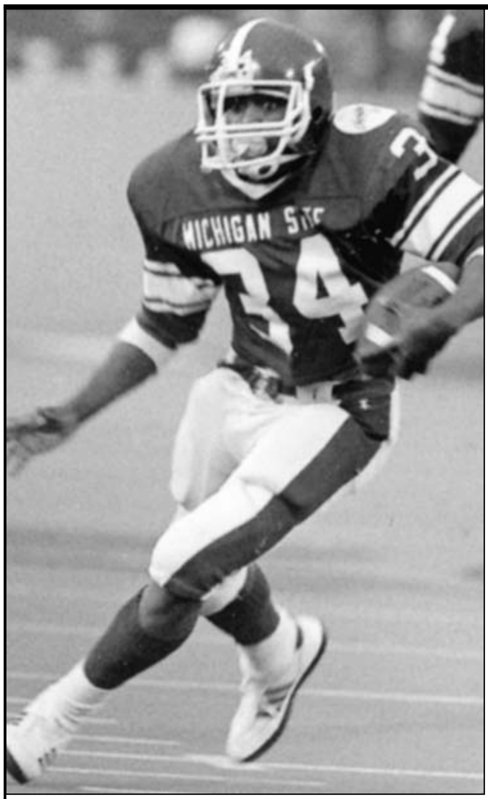
1984 Cherry Bowl

DEC. 22, 1984 / PONTIAC, MICH.

Wishbone quarterback Nate Sassaman rushed for 136 yards on 28 carries to lead Army, making its first-ever bowl appearance, to a 10-6 triumph over Michigan State in the 1984 Cherry Bowl. Michigan State had an early scoring chance after Phil Parker intercepted a rare Army pass and returned 18 yards to the Cadet 43. Three plays netted only 8 yards and Ralf Mojsiejenko's 52-yard field-goal attempt missed wide left. The Spartans put together a nine-play, 58-yard drive but early in the second quarter on third-and-goal from the Army 5, Dave Yarema's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Kermit McKelvy. A Michigan State fumble near midfield led to Army's only touchdown. Cadet Clarence Jones capped off an eight-play, 46-yard drive with a 4-yard run off right tackle to give Army a 7-0 lead with 6:41 left in the first half. Early in the third quarter, Sassaman rushed eight times for 37 yards during a 14-play, 49-yard drive but Craig Stopa's 32-yard field-goal try went wide right. Army converted a Spartan fumble into a field goal and a 10-0 lead in the fourth quarter as a 15-play, 59-yard drive produced a 38-yard field goal by Stopa with 8:40 remaining. A Cadet fumble gave Michigan State life as Tom Allan recovered the ball at the MSU 49. Three plays later, Yarema found Bob Wasczenski in the left corner of the end zone with a 36-yard TD strike. The two-point pass attempt failed and Michigan State trailed 10-6 with 4:19 left. Army gained 256 yards rushing on 71 attempts while controlling the clock for 34:05. The Cadets sacked Yarema six times and picked off three of his passes, including two by Doug Pavek.



Lorenzo White rushed for 103 yards but the Spartans dropped a 10-6 decision to Army in the 1984 Cherry Bowl.

DEC. 31, 1985 / BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

Malcolm King rushed for 122 yards on 16 carries and his 5-yard touchdown run with 1:50 left gave Georgia Tech a 17-14 come-from-behind victory over Michigan State in the 1985 All-American Bowl. Tim Moore's interception late in the second quarter set up Michigan State's first scoring drive. Dave Yarema hit Mark Ingram for a 37-yard gain on first down and three plays later, he tossed a 6-yard TD pass to Ingram to give the Spartans a 7-0 lead with 2:03 left in the first half. King's 56-yard run set up a 1-yard sneak by Todd Rampley, who was making his first collegiate start at quarterback, as the Yellow Jackets tied the game at 7 with 11:14 remaining in the third quarter. Greg Montgomery pinned Georgia Tech back on its 2-yard line with a 31-yard punt. The Spartan defense held and forced Georgia Tech to punt out of its own end zone. Bobby Morse returned the punt 8 yards to the Yellow Jacket 37. Lorenzo White raced 11 yards around left end for a first down and on the next play, Yarema again hooked up with Ingram for a 27-yard scoring pass to give the Spartans a 14-7 lead with 4:41 left in the third quarter. Georgia Tech pulled to within 14-10 as a 14-play, 57-yard drive resulted in a 40-yard field goal by David Bell with 7:08 to play. Michigan State turned the ball over on its next possession as Pat Swilling recovered a fumble at the MSU 42. King capped off the eight-play drive with a 5-yard run off left tackle. Ingram had three catches for 70 yards and two scores to earn the game's MVP award while White gained a game-high 158 yards on 33 rushes.

1988 Rose Bowl

JAN.1, 1988 / PASADENA, CALIF.

John Langeloh kicked a 36-yard field goal with 4:14 left in the fourth quarter, which proved to be the game winner, as No. 8 Michigan State defeated No. 16 Southern Cal, 20-17, in the 1988 Rose Bowl. The Spartans, making their first trip to Pasadena in 22 years, ended the Big Ten's six-game losing streak in the Rose Bowl. USC scored on its second possession as a 12-play, 52-yard drive produced a 34-yard field goal by Quin Rodriguez. MSU responded with a 15-play, 76-yard drive of its own to take a 7-3 lead on Lorenzo White's 5-yard touchdown run around left end with :54 left in the first quarter. The Spartans built a 14-3 advantage early in the second quarter as Bobby McAllister's 55-yard completion to Andre Rison set up White's second TD run from 3 yards out. The Trojans cut the deficit to 14-10 early in the third quarter as Rodney Peete hit Kevin Henry with a 33-yard TD strike. Michigan State extended its lead to 17-10 on Langeloh's 40-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter. USC put together a 10-play, 80-yard drive to tie the score at 17 on Peete's 22-yard TD toss to Henry in the back of the end zone with 8:33 remaining. Facing a third-and-8 from the MSU 30, McAllister eluded a heavy rush and completed a 36-yard pass to Rison for a first down at the USC 34. Blake Ezor carried the ball six straight times to the USC 18 to set up Langeloh's game-winning field goal. USC took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the MSU 30 but Peete fumbled away the center snap and Todd Krumm recovered. John Miller iced the game for the Spartans, intercepting Peete's "Hail Mary" pass at the MSU 13 with only :03 left. USC dominated the final stats, outgaining MSU, 410-276, in total yards but the Trojans committed five turnovers while the Spartans managed to play error-free football. White gained a game-high 113 yards rushing and scored twice. Peete completed 22-of-41 throws for 249 yards and two TDs but he was intercepted three times.

1990 Sun Bowl

DEC. 31, 1990 / EL PASO, TEXAS

Courtney Hawkins accounted for 216 all-purpose yards and caught a touchdown pass to lead No. 22 Michigan State to a 17-16 win over No. 21 Southern Cal in the 1990 Sun Bowl. MSU dodged a bullet early as Mike Iaquaniello intercepted a Todd Marinovich pass in the end zone on USC's first series. Late in the first quarter, the Trojans put together an eight-play, 60-yard drive to take a 7-0 lead on Marinovich's 7-yard pass to Gary Wellman. After a Spartan fumble, USC was again knocking on the door but on a fourth-and-inches play from inside the MSU 1, Marinovich mishandled the snap from center and Alan Haller recovered the fumble in the end zone for a touchback. MSU took advantage of the turnover and Hyland Hickson capped a 10-play, 80-yard drive with an 18-yard TD run with 2:22 left in the first half. USC opened the second half with an 18-play, 80-yard drive that lasted nine minutes but it had to settle for a 20-yard field goal from Quin Rodriguez. 1993 Liberty Bowl

DEC. 28, 1993 / MEMPHIS, TENN.

Jeff Brohm completed 19-of-29 passes for 197 yards and a touchdown to lead Louisville to an 18-7 win over Michigan State in the 1993 Liberty Bowl. Michigan State's only touchdown came on the game's first series. The Spartans took the opening kickoff and drove 79 yards in 11 plays with Duane Goulbourne twisting into the end zone on a 1-yard run over left guard. Spartan QB Jim Miller started with a hot hand, hitting all four pass attempts for 50 yards on the first series. Louisville also scored on its first possession as an eight-play, 56-yard march ended with David Akers' 31-yard field goal. Midway through the second quarter, the Spartans missed out on a scoring chance when Bill Stoyanovich misfired on a 31-yard field-goal attempt. Louisville put together a 14-play, 74-yard drive in the third quarter but failed to put points on the scoreboard as Akers missed a 23-yard field-goal try. Brohm directed a seven-play, 59-yard drive for the go-ahead score early in the fourth quarter, hitting Reggie Ferguson on a crossing pattern for a 25-yard TD pass. A 24-yard interception return by Darius Watson gave Louisville the ball back at the MSU 33 but seven plays later, the Spartan defense stopped Anthony Shelman short of the goal line on fourth-and-1. The Cardinals got two points back on the next play as Joe Johnson and Tyrus McCloud tackled Spartan tailback Craig Thomas in his own end zone for a safety. Louisville iced the game with a seven-play, 54-yard drive as Ralph Dawkins scored on an 11-yard sweep around right end.

2000 Citrus Bowl

JAN. 1, 2000 / ORLANDO, FLA.

Paul Edinger kicked a 39-yard field goal as time expired to give No. 9 Michigan State a 37-34 victory over No. 10 Florida in the 2000 Florida Citrus Bowl. It marked Michigan State's first New Year's Day bowl victory since the 1988 Rose Bowl and it ended a four-game losing streak in postseason play. There were five lead changes in the contest. The Spartans opened the scoring as an eight-play, 36-yard drive resulted in a 46-yard field goal by Edinger. Florida countered with an eight-play, 80-yard drive to take a 7-3 lead as Travis Taylor scored on a 12-yard toss from Doug Johnson. Michigan State built a 17-7 lead in the second quarter on Bill Burke's 37-yard TD strike to Plaxico Burress and a 24-yard fumble return by T.J. Turner. The Gators put together an 11-play, 83-yard drive to pull to within 17-14 on Johnson's 8-yard TD pass to Taylor. Edinger's second field goal, a 20-yarder, gave the Spartans a 20-14 lead but Johnson capped off an 11-play, 80-yard drive with a 1-yard sneak to put Florida ahead at the half, 21-20. Burke directed a 10-play, 84-yard drive late in the third quarter, hooking up with Burress for a 21-yard scoring pass. The Gators regained the lead on the next possession as Johnson hit Taylor for another score, this time from 39 yards out. Florida's final score came off a Spartan turnover as Alex Brown recovered a fumble at the MSU 48. Six plays later, Rob Gillespie scored on a 2-yard run as Florida extended its lead to 34-26. Michigan State rallied to tie the score at 34 early in the fourth quarter as Burke found Burress alone in the end zone for a 30-yard completion then he hit Gari Scott for the two-point conversion. Lloyd Clemons' 8-yard run on third-and-2 set up Edinger's game-winning kick from the Florida 22. Burress had a school-record 13 receptions for 185 yards and three TDs to earn Citrus Bowl MVP honors. Burke completed 21-of-35 throws for 257 yards and three scores while Clemons rushed for a game-high 105 yards on 20 carries. Johnson connected on 24-of-50 passes for 288 yards and three TDs while Taylor had 11 catches for 156 yards and three scores.

Fresno State put together an 11-play, 82-yard drive midway through the third quarter and cut its deficit to 37-28 on a 2-yard TD run by Paris Gaines. With seven minutes left in the game, Fresno State's Bryce McGill blocked Craig Jarrett's punt and Maurice Rodriguez returned it 17 yards to the MSU 15. Three plays later, Gaines scored on a 15-yard screen pass from Carr as the Bulldogs rallied to within two, 37-35, with 6:04 on the clock. The Spartans clinched the game with a seven-play, 77-yard touchdown drive. Two plays later, Ross scored on a 2-yard run as Nebraska jumped out to a 10-3 lead with 13:17 left in the first half. Late in the second quarter, Lord broke free for a 66-yard gain to the MSU 14. The Spartan defense bounced back in the second half, allowing only 106 total yards while holding Nebraska scoreless. Michigan State's offense came to life midway through the fourth quarter. Smoker completed five-straight passes for 39 yards and Tyrell Dortch gained 16 yards on two running plays as the Spartans marched to the Cornhusker 17. After a personal-foul penalty pushed the Spartans back 15 yards, Pat Ricketts ended the scoring threat when he picked off Smoker's throw intended for Aaron Alexander at the Nebraska 24. The Cornhuskers limited Michigan State to a season-low 174 total yards – nearly 210 yards below its season average. Nebraska sacked Smoker five times for 37 yards and forced three interceptions.

John L. Smith is one of 14 head coaches in college football history to take three different teams (Utah State, Louisville and Michigan State) to bowl games, including one of just four active coaches to accomplish this feat.

HEAD COACH

Second Year

The resurgence of the Michigan State football program began on Dec. 19, 2002, when John L. Smith became the University's 23rd head coach.

Smith brought with him a reputation as a program builder from his previous head-coaching tenures at Idaho, Utah State and Louisville. He has only enhanced that track record at Michigan State, earning the Dave McClain Coach of the Year award as selected by the Big Ten media panel. Smith, who inherited a team that went 4-8 in 2002, orchestrated the nation's fifth-biggest regular-season turnaround by producing an 8-4 record in 2003. After finishing eighth in the league with a 2-6 mark in 2002, the Spartans climbed to fourth in the final Big Ten standings at 5-3.

His eight wins marked the most by a first-year coach in school history. Smith also became only the second first-year coach in Spartan history to earn a postseason bowl bid (Alamo Bowl vs. Nebraska), joining Nick Saban who guided the 1995 team to a 6-5-1 record including a trip to the Independence Bowl.

Michigan State opened the 2003 campaign with a 7-1 record – its best start since 1966. The Spartans put together a five-game winning streak that featured victories over three ranked opponents: Notre Dame (NR/No. 23), Iowa (No. 13/9) and Minnesota (No. 25/19). Following its 44-38 victory at Minnesota, Michigan State ascended to No. 9 in The Associated Press poll – its first appearance in the AP Top 10 since the 1999 season. In addition, the Spartans opened Big Ten play 4-0 for just the third time since joining the league in 1953.

Smith wasted little time injecting doses of confidence and fiery competitiveness. His influences were evident in all three phases of the game. Veteran quarterback Jeff Smoker thrived in the spread offense, leading the Big Ten in both passing (261.2 yards per game) and total offense (252.2 ypg.). Thanks to his aggressive defensive philosophy, the Spartans led the Big Ten in sacks (45 for 299 yards) and takeaways (29) while finishing second in turnover margin (+11). Michigan State boasted arguably one of the nation's best kicking tandems, in punter Brandon Fields (No. 2 in NCAA with 46.3 avg.) and placekicker Dave Rayner (No. 10 in NCAA with school-record 22 made field goals). In addition, All-American DeAndra Cobb ranked No. 11 nationally in kickoff returns with his 27.2-yard average, including an NCAA-record tying three runbacks for touchdowns.

The 55-year-old Smith has compiled a 118-65 record (.645) in 15 years as a college head coach, including an impressive 76-28 mark (.731) in conference games. He ranks No. 14 among active NCAA I-A football coaches in career victories (118) and No. 19 in career winning percentage (.645). Smith has produced six conference champions (two Conference USA, two Big West and two Big Sky). Twelve of his 15 teams have participated in postseason play, including seven-straight bowl appearances. Smith is one of 14 head coaches in college football history to take three different teams to bowl games, including one of just four active coaches to accomplish this feat (Mack Brown: Tulane, North Carolina and Texas; Dennis Franchione: New Mexico, TCU and Alabama; and Ken Hatfield: Air Force, Arkansas and Clemson).

Smith came to Michigan State following five seasons at Louisville (1998-2002) where he led the Cardinals to unprecedented success. He put together a 41-21 worksheet (.661), including five-straight bowl appearances and back-to-back Conference USA titles in 2000-01. The five bowl trips equaled the number of postseason appearances Louisville had made prior to his arrival and the five consecutive winning seasons marked a first for the program.

- The 2002 Cardinals went 7-6 overall, including a 38-15 loss to Marshall in the GMAC Bowl. Louisville finished third in the C-USA standings at 5-3, one game behind co-champions Texas Christian and Cincinnati. The highlight of the 2002 season came on Sept. 26 when the Cardinals knocked off No. 4 Florida State in overtime, 26-20. Louisville ranked among the NCAA leaders in rushing defense (No. 17 at 113.0 ypg.) and total defense (No. 22 at 319.9 ypg.). The Cardinals produced a league-best six first-team All-Conference USA selections, including Offensive Player of the Year Dave Ragone (quarterback) and Special Teams Player of the Year Broderick Clark (kick returner).

- In 2001, Smith earned Conference USA Coach of the Year honors after leading Louisville to a school-record 11 victories, including a 28-10 triumph over Brigham Young in the Liberty Bowl. Louisville became the first program in C-USA history to win back-to-back league titles while Ragone and defensive end Dewayne White became the first C-USA players from the same school to receive offensive and defensive player of the year honors in the same season. The Cardinals were ranked among The Associated Press Top 25 for seven straight weeks, finishing No. 17 (No. 16 in USA Today/ESPN final poll).
- The 2000 team won its last four regular-season games to claim Louisville's first Conference USA championship and a berth in the Liberty Bowl. Louisville finished 9-3 overall, posting its most wins since 1993, while also making its first appearance in the national polls in seven years. For his efforts, the Football Writers Association of America named Smith one of three finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award. The 2000 Cardinals featured a high-scoring offense and a relentless defense. Louisville averaged better than 35 points per game during the regular season, scoring touchdowns 73 percent of the time it reached the red zone. The Cardinals also ranked among the NCAA's leaders in rushing defense (No. 4) and total defense (No. 15). Louisville's defense led the nation in turnovers forced with 37, including 10 interceptions from All-America safety Anthony Floyd.
- In 1999, Louisville won four of its last five regular-season games en route to a 7-5 record overall, 4-2 in C-USA play. For the second year in a row, the Cardinals were listed among the nation's top 10 in scoring, passing offense and total offense. Six players earned first-team All-Conference USA honors while five rookies were named to the all-freshman team.

- The revival of Louisville's football program began in 1998. Smith, who inherited a team that went winless in the league and finished 1-10 in 1997, produced the biggest turnaround among NCAA I-A programs in 1998 by guiding the Cardinals to a 7-5 record overall, 4-2 in C-USA action. Louisville led the nation in total offense, averaging 559.6 yards per game, while also ranking among the NCAA leaders in passing offense (No. 3 at 408.9 ypg.) and scoring (No. 6 at 40.4 ppg.). The Cardinals topped the 50-point mark four times in 1998, including three 60-point games. Quarterback Chris Redman finished second in the nation in total offense, averaging 400.9 yards per game. Louisville broke or tied 84 school or C-USA records in Smith's first season.

Prior to his appointment at Louisville, Smith posted a 16-18 ledger (.471) in three seasons at Utah State. He took over a Utah State program that had produced only two winning seasons in the previous 15 years and led the Aggies to consecutive Big West Conference crowns in 1996-97, finishing 6-5 and 6-6, respectively.

In 1997, Utah State won four of its last five regular-season games and earned a trip to the Humanitarian Bowl. It marked the program's second bowl appearance since 1961. In 1997, the Aggies were listed among the NCAA leaders in total offense (No. 9 at 449.4 yards per game), passing offense (No. 14 at 280.5 ypg.), scoring offense (No. 17 at 33.6 points) and rushing defense (No. 25 at 115.6 ypg.).

In 1996, Utah State forged a 6-5 overall mark despite facing a demanding non-league schedule, with home games against Utah and Brigham Young and road contests at Southern Miss, Oklahoma State and Texas Tech. The Aggies ranked among the nation's top 10 in passing offense (No. 7 at 317.5 yards per game) and total offense (No. 9 at 468.5 ypg.).

The Aggies compiled a 4-7 record overall in 1995 but narrowly missed posting a winning season, losing four games by a combined total of 14 points. Smith's one-back offense produced impressive numbers in 1995, with Utah State ranking among the NCAA leaders in passing offense (No. 14 at 270.5 ypg.) and total offense (No. 16 at 434.2). The defense certainly did its share to keep the Aggies in the Big West title race, allowing fewer than 16 points per game in league play. Utah State finished among the league leaders in every defensive category – second in total defense, second in passing defense and third in rushing defense.

A native of Idaho Falls, Idaho, Smith arrived at Utah State following six seasons at the University of Idaho where he became the winningest coach in school history. His six-year mark of 53-21 (.716) at Idaho included a 34-11 Big Sky Conference record (.756) and five postseason appearances, including three-straight trips to the NCAA I-AA playoffs from 1992-94. Those five playoff teams also finished the year ranked among the nation's top 20.

His 1994 team won its first seven games, including a 48-38 road victory over eventual Big West Conference champion UNLV, en route to a 9-3 record, a trip to the I-AA playoffs and No. 8 final ranking.

His 1993 squad climbed to No. 1 in the polls following a 28-17 victory at Utah. Idaho lost to eventual national champion Youngstown State, 35-16, in the I-AA semifinals to end up 11-3 (No. 11 final ranking). The Vandals led the nation in both scoring (47.5 points) and total offense (532.0 yards).

His 1992 team won the Big Sky Conference title with a 6-1 record, finished the year ranked fifth nationally and its 9-3 ledger included an impressive road victory over Colorado State, 37-34. Idaho again was listed among the national leaders in total offense (second at 490.0 yards) and scoring (third at 40.6 points).

His 1991 ballclub went 6-5 and ranked second nationally in passing offense (336.3 yards) and third in total offense (482.4 yards).

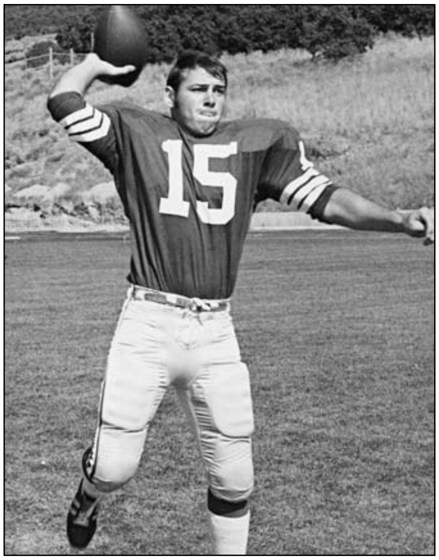
His 1990 team put together a seven-game winning streak on its way to a 9-4 record and No. 13 national ranking. Idaho lost to eventual national champion Georgia Southern, 28-27, in the I-AA quarterfinals. The Vandals ranked among the national leaders in scoring (second at 37.2 points) and total offense (fifth at 454.6 yards).

His 1989 team won a school-record nine-straight games and became the first team in Big Sky Conference history to complete the league schedule with a perfect 8-0 record. The team finished the year ranked fourth nationally at 9-3.

Smith tutored 12 first-team All-Americans at Idaho, including Walter Payton Award (I-AA Player of the Year) winners John Friesz (1989) and Doug Nussmeier (1993).

Prior to taking over the Idaho head coaching position, Smith spent two years as the defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Washington State (1987-88) where he served under former Miami (Fla.) and Oregon State head coach Dennis Erickson, now in his second year as head coach of the National Football League's San Francisco 49ers. He was Erickson's defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Wyoming during the 1986 season. Smith began his first stint at Idaho in 1982 where he again served as Erickson's defensive coordinator and assistant head coach for four years (1982-85).

His college coaching credits also include stops at Nevada (1977-81) and Montana (1972-76). During his tenure as defensive coordinator at Nevada, the Wolf Pack led the nation in total defense, scoring defense and rushing defense in 1980. He began his coaching career in 1971 as a graduate assistant at Weber State.



A linebacker and quarterback at Weber State, Smith earned Big Sky Conference scholar-athlete honors in 1971-72. He received his undergraduate degree in physical education with a minor in math in 1971. Smith earned a master's of science degree in physical education from the University of Montana in 1974.

He lettered in three sports – football, basketball and track – while attending Bonneville High School in Idaho Falls, Idaho. In 2000, Sports Illustrated recognized Smith as one of Idaho's top 100 athletes of the 20th century. For his accomplishments as both an athlete and head coach, he was inducted into the Idaho Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001.

Married to the former Diana Flora of Idaho Falls, Smith and his wife are the parents of three children, Nicholas (25), Kayse (22) and Sam (21).

Smith has earned quite a reputation for his thrill-seeking adventures. Perhaps, a message hanging on the wall behind his desk in the Duffy Daugherty Football Building provides the best insight into his daredevil mentality: “Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away.”

Here are brief recaps of Smith’s most recent adventures:

- In July 2004, he took his entire family on a wildlife photo safari in Kenya. Smith and his sons left the safari early and traveled to Tanzania to climb a 19,340-foot peak on Mount Kilimanjaro.
- In December 2003, Smith participated in an orientation flight on a T-38 Talon at Randolph Air Force Base, Texas.
- In 2002, he skydived from a Cessna at 14,000 feet over Greensburg, Ind.
- In 2001, Smith ran with the bulls in Pamplona, Spain.
- In 2000, he attended Officer Candidates School with the U.S. Marines in Quantico, Va.

Dave Baldwin

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/TIGHT ENDS

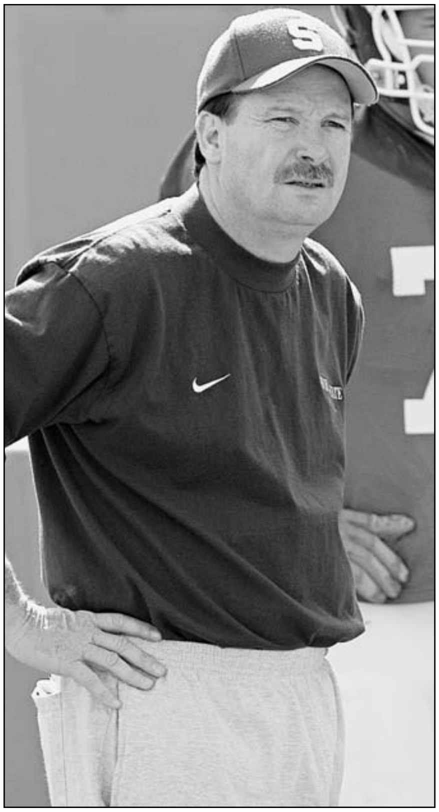
Second Season

Former San Jose State and Cal State Northridge head coach Dave Baldwin begins his second season as Michigan State's offensive coordinator and tight ends coach.

In its 2004 preseason publication, The Sporting News ranks the 49-year-old Baldwin as the Big Ten's top offensive coordinator.

In 2003, Baldwin earned national recognition for how quickly he helped quarterback Jeff Smoker grasp the spread offense. Smoker, a second-team All-Big Ten selection, led the league in passing (261.2 yards per game) and total offense (252.2 ypg.). His 302 pass completions, 488 pass attempts, 3,395 passing yards and 21 TD passes all represent the top single-season totals in Spartan history. Smoker recorded a single-season record 10 200-yard passing games, including six 300-yard performances. A key to his throwing success was Smoker's ability to utilize all of the weapons at his disposal in the spread offense as seven different receivers each caught at least 20 passes.

Michigan State amassed a school single-season record 3,510 passing yards in 2003. The Spartans also produced 4,776 total yards and 363 total points – the fourth-best single-season figures in Spartan history. Another key to Michigan State's remarkable turnaround was the offense's ability to take care of the football. The Spartans committed just 18 turnovers – the Big Ten's fourth-lowest total (No. 15 in the NCAA). In 2003, Michigan State played five complete games without committing a turnover, including a streak of four-straight contests (Iowa, Indiana, Illinois and Minnesota).



Baldwin came to Michigan State following one season at Baylor where he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Kevin Steele. In 2002, Baylor finished sixth in the Big 12 Conference in passing offense, averaging 231.5 yards per game. Senior wide receiver Reggie Newhouse, a second-team All-Big 12 selection, set Baylor single-season records for receptions (75) and receiving yards (1,140). Newhouse also ranked among the NCAA leaders in catches (No. 18 at 6.25 per game) and receiving yards (No. 18 at 95.0 per game).

Baldwin spent the 2001 season as offensive coordinator at Cincinnati under Rick Minter, helping the Bearcats to a 7-5 record and a trip to the Motor City Bowl. Cincinnati ranked among the Conference USA leaders in every offensive category, finishing second in passing offense (269.8 yards per game), third in total offense (416.3 yards), third in scoring offense (29.1 points) and fourth in rushing offense (146.5 yards). The Bearcats also were listed among the national leaders in passing offense (No. 25), total offense (No. 36) and scoring offense (No. 36). Baldwin coached 2001 C-USA Freshman of the Year Gino Guidugli, who finished second in the league in passing (257.3 yards) and third in passing efficiency (137.5 rating). Cincinnati's offense also produced C-USA's leading receiver in LaDaris Vann, who caught 6.64 passes per game.

Baldwin previously served as head coach and offensive play-caller at San Jose State for four years (1997-2000) where he compiled an 18-27 record (.400), including three straight wins over Stanford (1998-2000).

In 2000, San Jose State produced a 7-5 worksheet – its best mark in eight years – including victories over Stanford (40-27) and ninth-ranked Texas Christian (27-24), that ended the nation's longest winning streak at 12 games. The Spartans ranked among the NCAA leaders in every offensive category in 2000, finishing No. 26 in rushing offense (189.1 yards per game), No. 26 in total offense (417.3 yards), No. 30 in scoring offense (31.2 points) and No. 40 in passing offense (228.3 yards). San Jose State's offense also featured the nation's fourth-leading rusher in Deonce Whitaker, who averaged 157.7 yards per game.

His 1999 San Jose State team knocked off Rose Bowl-bound Stanford, 44-39. The Spartans again finished among the national leaders in passing offense in 1999, ranking No. 30 at 249.0 yards per game.

San Jose State opened the 1998 season with a 35-23 victory at Stanford – its first win over a Pac-10 opponent in eight years.

His 1997 Spartan squad produced a 4-7 record overall, including a 4-4 mark in Western Athletic Conference play. It marked the first time in four years that the Spartans had reached the .500 mark in league games. In 1997, San Jose State also posted its first win over a ranked opponent since 1990, upsetting No. 24 Air Force, 25-22.

Prior to taking over the San Jose State head coaching position, Baldwin posted a 9-12 record (.429) in two seasons at Cal State Northridge (1995-96). In 1996, he guided Cal State Northridge to a 7-4 mark – the school's first winning season in four years at the NCAA I-AA level.

Baldwin produced a 31-21 record (.596) in five years as a head coach at the junior college level. In 1994, he led Santa Rosa (Calif.) Junior College to an 8-3 ledger, including a trip to the Lions Bowl. He went 23-18 (.561) in four seasons at Santa Barbara City College (1990-93). In 1991, Baldwin earned California Community College Region III Coach of the Year honors after helping the Vaqueros to a 9-2 record and a berth in the Potato Bowl.

In Jan. 2004, Mitchell participated in the first NCAA Advanced Coaching Program, joining 19 other ethnic minority assistants for the three-day event in Orlando, Fla.

During his Michigan State tenure, Mitchell has tutored two NFL first-round draft picks, in wide receiver Plaxico Burress (Pittsburgh Steelers, 2000) and running back T.J. Duckett (Atlanta Falcons, 2002), plus recruited a third in Charles Rogers, the No. 2 selection overall by the Detroit Lions in the 2003 NFL Draft.

In 2001, Duckett rushed for 1,420 yards – the fifth-best single-season total in school history. Duckett, MSU's fifth all-time leading rusher with 3,379 career yards, became the first Spartan running back to be drafted in the first round (No. 18 overall) since Lorenzo White (Houston Oilers) in 1988.

In 1999, Mitchell coached the wide receivers, including Burress, who set then MSU single-season records for receptions (66), receiving yards (1,142) and TD catches (12).

From 1992-95, Kansas won 29 games — the best four-year total in 85 seasons. In 1995, the Jayhawks went 10-2 and finished ninth in the final Associated Press Poll, following a 51-30 victory over UCLA in the Aloha Bowl. Kansas compiled an 8-4 overall record in 1992, including a 23-20 triumph over BYU in the Aloha Bowl, and stood No. 22 in the final AP Poll.

Mitchell first joined Coach Mason as wide receivers coach at Kent State in 1987. Prior to joining Mason, he coached the running backs at Western Michigan in 1986. He served as a graduate assistant coach under Bo Schembechler at Michigan in 1985. His first full-time coaching assignment came at Ferris State in 1984 where he worked with the wide receivers.

Doug Nussmeier

QUARTERBACKS COACH

Second Season

Doug Nussmeier is in his second season as quarterbacks coach at Michigan State.

Nussmeier deserves much of the credit for the rapid adjustment Jeff Smoker made to the spread offense in 2003. Smoker, a second-team All-Big Ten selection, led the league in passing (261.2 yards per game) and total offense (252.2 ypg.). His 302 pass completions, 488 pass attempts, 3,395 passing yards and 21 TD passes all represent the top single-season totals in Spartan history. He recorded a single-season record 10 200-yard passing games, including six 300-yard performances. Smoker, who was selected by the St. Louis Rams in the sixth round of 2004 the NFL Draft, became the first Spartan quarterback to be drafted since 1996 when Tony Banks went in the second round to the Rams.

The 33-year-old Nussmeier came to Michigan State following two years as an assistant coach in the Canadian Football League.

In 2002, he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Joe Paopao for the expansion Ottawa Renegades. Ottawa ranked seventh in the CFL in passing offense, averaging 221.0 yards per game, with quarterback Dan Crowley throwing for 2,513 yards and 16 touchdowns.

Nussmeier spent the 2001 season as quarterbacks coach with the British Columbia Lions. In 2001, B.C. finished third in the CFL in total offense (357.8 yards per game) and fifth in passing offense (246.1 yards). Lion QB Damon Allen ranked among the league leaders in TD passes (fourth with 18) and passing yards (fifth with 3,631).

He finished his professional football career in 2000, playing in 18 regular-season and three playoff games for Grey Cup champion British Columbia. Nussmeier completed 54-of-94 throws (.574) for 768 yards, six TDs and two interceptions. He also rushed for 183 yards and a score. In a 49-42 overtime loss to Edmonton, Nussmeier threw for 178 yards and three TDs.

Nussmeier, a fourth-round selection (No. 116 overall) by New Orleans in 1994, spent five years in the National Football League, including four seasons with the Saints (1994-97). While in New Orleans, he played in seven regular-season games, including one start each in 1996 and 1997. During his four years with the Saints, Nussmeier connected on 46-of-82 passes (.561) for 455 yards, one TD and four interceptions. He joined the Indianapolis Colts in 1998.

A native of Lake Oswego, Ore., he was a four-year starter for Coach Smith at Idaho from 1990-93. Nussmeier still ranks among the NCAA I-AA all-time leaders in passing (No. 8 with 10,824 career yards) and total offense (No. 9 at 309.1 yards per game). He is one of only three quarterbacks in NCAA history to throw for at least 10,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards (1,230), joining Alcorn State's Steve McNair (1991-94) and Central Florida's Daunte Culpepper (1996-98). Nussmeier set Vandal career records for passing yards, TD passes (91), passing efficiency (175.2), completion percentage (.609, 746-1,225) and total offense (12,054 yards; 308.4 yards per game).

In 1993, Nussmeier won the Walter Payton Award, presented annually to the I-AA player of the year, after leading the Vandals to an 11-3 record overall and a trip to the national semifinals. As a senior, he completed 185-of-304 throws (.609) for 2,960 yards and a school-record 33 TDs. His 172.2 QB rating in 1993 ranks as the seventh-best single-season mark in I-AA history.

Married to the former Christi Hebert, Nussmeier and his wife have a 2-year-old son Garrett and are expecting their second child in September.

Chris Smeland

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/SAFETIES

Second Season

Chris Smeland, one of five assistants to follow head coach John L. Smith from Louisville to Michigan State, begins his second season as defensive coordinator and safeties coach. Smeland has been a defensive coordinator for 21 years, including the last nine seasons under Coach Smith.

Under Smeland's leadership, the Spartan defense played a major role in the team's remarkable turnaround in 2003. Michigan State led the Big Ten in sacks (45 for 299 yards), takeaways (29) and interceptions (15). The Spartans also ranked among the Big Ten (sixth) and NCAA leaders (27th) in rushing defense, allowing only 124.8 yards per game. In 2003, Michigan State held four opponents under the 100-yard rushing mark while permitting just nine rushing touchdowns.

The Spartans displayed dramatic improvement on the defensive side of the football in 2003, especially when you consider Smeland inherited a unit that ranked ninth in the Big Ten and No. 110 nationally (out of 117) in rushing defense in 2002, surrendering 213.8 yards per game. The 2002 Spartans also finished ninth in the Big Ten in sacks (19 for 113 yards) and takeaways (19).

The 53-year-old Smeland also coached safety Jason Harmon, who led the team in tackles (108) and production points (159) in 2003.

Smeland played an integral part in helping Louisville to a combined record of 41-21 (.661) from 1998-2002, including five straight bowl appearances and back-to-back Conference USA championships in 2000-01. He helped develop players who earned All-Conference USA honors 16 times, including seven first-team selections.

From 2000-02, Louisville's defense produced an NCAA-best 132 sacks to go along with 86 takeaways, including 54 interceptions.

In 2002, the Cardinals ranked among the NCAA leaders in rushing defense (No. 17 at 113.0 yards per game) and total defense (No. 22 at 319.9 ypg.).

In 2001, the Cardinals finished No. 10 nationally in scoring defense, permitting 17.8 points per game.

In 2000, Louisville ranked among the NCAA leaders in rushing defense (No. 4) and total defense (No. 15) while forcing a nation-best 37 turnovers. All-America safety Anthony Floyd led the NCAA with 10 interceptions (tied Akron's Dwight Smith).

During his three-year stint at Utah State (1995-97), the Aggies won consecutive Big West Conference crowns in 1996-97. Smeland tutored six first-team All-Big West selections.

In 1997, Utah State led the Big West in every defensive category and finished No. 25 nationally in rushing defense, allowing only 115.6 yards per game.

In 1995, the Aggies again ranked among the league leaders in every defensive category – finishing second in total defense, second in passing defense and third in rushing defense. Utah State allowed fewer than 16 points per game in conference play.

Smeland spent four years on the Hawaii coaching staff (1991-94), working with the inside and outside linebackers in 1991 before being elevated to defensive coordinator in 1992. The Rainbows won a share of the Western Athletic Conference championship in 1992 and finished 11-2 overall, including a 27-17 Holiday Bowl triumph over Illinois, thanks in part to a defensive unit which ranked second in the league in rushing defense (167.2 yards). Smeland tutored two first-team All-WAC selections during his tenure, including nose guard Maa Tanuvasa (1992) and linebacker Junior Faavae (1994).

He previously served as defensive coordinator at Kent State (1988-90) and Cal Poly San Luis Obispo (1982-87). His coaching credits also include stops at Nevada (offensive line, 1979-81), Colorado (outside linebackers, 1978) and Southwestern Louisiana (inside linebackers, 1977).

A four-year letterman as a defensive back at Cal Poly SLO (1970-73), Smeland earned all-conference and All-Little Coast honors as a senior. He also served as team captain in 1973.

Smeland graduated from Cal Poly SLO in 1974 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He received his MBA in finance from Colorado in 1976.

Married to the former Barbara Carlsen of Carson City, Nev., Smeland and his wife have three children – Jamie Christine (20), Kathleen Nicole (18) and Kristen Kelly (11).

Jeff Stoutland

OFFENSIVE LINE

Fifth Season

Jeff Stoutland begins his fifth year as offensive line coach at Michigan State.

In 2003, Stoutland tutored offensive tackle Steve Stewart and offensive guard Joe Tate, who each earned second-team All-Big Ten honors from the coaches.

He also coached former center Brian Ottney, who earned the Up Front Award as MSU's outstanding interior offensive lineman in 2001-02, becoming only the second repeat recipient in the 28-year history of the trophy. Former All-American Tony Mandarich won the award three-straight years from 1986-88.

Stoutland's offensive line helped pave the way for T.J. Duckett, who produced back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in 2000 and 2001. Duckett, the No. 18 pick overall in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons, rushed for 1,420 yards in 2001 – the fifth-best single-season total in Spartan history.

The 42-year-old Stoutland spent three seasons under Paul Pasqualoni at Syracuse (1997-99), where he coached the tight ends his first two years before taking over the offensive line in 1999. In addition to his coaching duties, he also served as the Orangemen's recruiting coordinator for all three years.

In 1999, he tutored first-team All-Big East offensive tackle Mark Baniewicz, who also earned the National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award and GTE Academic All-America honors. During his stint as tight ends coach, Stoutland helped produce two NFL players, including Roland Williams (Oakland Raiders) and Kaseem Sinceno (Philadelphia Eagles, 1998-99; Chicago Bears, 2000).

Stoutland previously spent four years as offensive line coach at Cornell (1993-96). Former Big Red center Greg Bloedorn, who earned first-team All-Ivy League honors in 1995, spent three years with the NFL's Seattle Seahawks (1997-99).

His full-time coaching credits include two stints at his alma mater, Southern Connecticut State, where he served as offensive coordinator for five years (1988-92) and coached inside linebackers for two seasons (1984-85).

The New York City native also served as a graduate assistant for Coach Dick MacPherson for two years at Syracuse (1986-87), working primarily with the offensive line.

In 2003, Michigan State led the Big Ten and ranked fifth in the NCAA in sacks, with 45 (299 yards), thanks largely to the production of the front four. The defensive line combined to account for 27 sacks. The Spartans also ranked among the Big Ten (sixth) and NCAA (27th) leaders in rushing defense, allowing only 124.8 yards per game.

Stripling tutored defensive ends Greg Taplin and Clifford Dukes, who each earned second-team All-Big Ten honors in 2003. Taplin led the Spartans in tackles for losses (14 for 67 yards) and sacks (10 for 60). Dukes ranked second on the team with seven sacks (32 yards). In addition, Stripling coached defensive tackle Matthias Askew, who became a fourth-round selection by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2004 NFL Draft. Askew led the defensive line in tackles, with 69 including a career-best six sacks (41 yards).

Stripling, a member of Louisville's coaching staff from 2001-02, helped develop two first-team All-Conference USA selections, including Dewayne White (2001-02) and Michael Josiah (2001). During his two seasons, the Cardinals recorded 77 sacks.

In 2002, Louisville ranked second in C-USA in rushing defense (113.0 yards per game) and total defense (319.9 yards). The Cardinals also finished among the NCAA leaders in rushing defense (No. 17) and total defense (No. 22).

Stripling came to Louisville following four seasons at Minnesota (1997-2000) where he served as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator under Glen Mason. In 1999, Minnesota ranked among the Big Ten leaders in passing defense (first at 179.4 yards), scoring defense (second at 16.3 points) and total defense (fourth at 319.9 yards). The Golden Gophers finished No. 22 nationally in total defense in 1999 while racking up a school-record 44 sacks.

Prior to joining the Minnesota staff, Stripling spent 13 seasons under Bill Mallory at Indiana (1984-96) where he coached the offensive and defensive lines for six years each before taking over as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 1996. He also coached Indiana's placekickers.

During his tenure at Indiana, he tutored nine All-Big Ten players while the Hoosiers made six bowl appearances.

Stripling worked as offensive line coach at Northern Illinois for four years, from 1980-83. The Huskies won the Mid-American Conference championship in 1983 with an 8-1 league record and finished 10-2 overall, including a 20-13 victory over Cal State Fullerton in the California Bowl.

He served as the recruiting coach at North Carolina in 1979 after getting a start as a graduate assistant at Colorado in 1977-78.

He was a two-year starter (1974-75) for the Buffaloes at left guard. Stripling signed a contract with the NFL's Atlanta Falcons in 1976.

Stripling earned his undergraduate degree from Colorado in 1976. He later received his master's degree from Colorado.
